Brantford, Ont., June 1.—Harry Vanloon, a leader of a religious sect on the reserve, appeared before Magistrate Livingston this morning charged with illegally performing the marriage ceremony with Herbert Martin and Christina Hill, whereby the couple were married on the reserve some time ago. The authorities claim that Vanloon is not a duly qualified minister of the gospel, and had no right to officiate. Pending the outcome of a case before the High Court of Appeals, the magistrate adjourned the proceedings.

POLICE WANT HIM.

Warrant Issued For S. Schraiber, Real Estate Agent.

A warrant has been issued and the police are out looking for S. Schraiber, an erstwhile real estate dealer who conducted a business at 104 King street west, and later moved to Walnut and King streets. Schraiber is alleged to have flim-flammed several people on sales of houses and a private detective, who has been investigating, says that a detective has been put on the case, and Schraiber's scheme, according to the reports made to the police, was a simple one. J. Alter, a storekeeper at 103 John street south, wanted to buy a house, and he went to Schraiber. Schraiber showed him a list, and picking out one he wanted to look it over. The agent told the would-be purchaser that the occupants would not allow them to go through it, and said that he wanted to make a sale immediately, as the owner was badly hit by the financial stringency, and was willing on that account to sell at a sacrifice, because he must have the cash at once. The house could be had at $2,000, $1,000 less than it was listed for. He also insisted on an "earnest penny" of $30. This was paid over by Alter. Several others are alleged to have been skinned in the same way. After complaining to the police, a detective was put on the case, and investigated, and had an interview with the agent, who immediately afterwards disappeared, without leaving his address at the police office. The police this morning refused to divulge anything further about the case.

M'CLEMENT AND WARDROPE LIBERAL STANDARD BEARERS.

Three Men Nominated in Each of the Hamilton Constituencies This Morning.

Small Gatherings at Meetings—The Nominations in North and South Wentworth.

W. M. McCLEMENT, Liberal Candidate in East Hamilton.

John Jackson second, nominated by Dr. Carr and seconded by Thos. Jutten.

William Melville McClement, nominated by Geo. H. Milne and seconded by Charles Peebles.

Allan Studholme, nominated by Walter Pollo, seconded by Chas. Welby.

L. M. Gordon, by Wm. Watson and Harry Simpson.

The nominations for East Hamilton took place at the Police Court. Few electors were present, in view, perhaps, of the fact that an announcement had been erroneously made that they would take place at the Court House.

Before he had finished reading the proclamation Dr. Carr stood up, and when the last word fell from his lips commenced an address in favor of Mr. J. J. Scott. He said that as a member of the Board of Education he knew the necessity of having a technical institute, what was the Whitney Government doing? ("Taken away the Normal College," said a free seater)—toward helping us establish the manual training classes in this city? He said the Government had contributed $300 toward the salary of the manual training teacher in the Caroline and Wentworth street schools. The Government was in favor of establishing a Technical College in Ontario, and he wanted it established here. The Government had not pledged itself to establish the College here, and therefore it was necessary that Hamilton should be represented by a supporter of the Government.

Mr. J. J. Scott made a speech that caused some amusement when he seconded the nomination of the capitalistic lawyer. "Mr. Scott gave his time and money to build up East Hamilton," said the alderman, and the gathering laughed in his face.

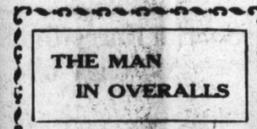

Mr. Geo. H. Milne said he was about to nominate a man who will stand for the best interests of the country when sent to the Legislature. He said Mr. McClement will stand for British fair play—Canadian fair play. He will not vote for any man who would represent the masses in the East. Riding better than either of the candidates nominated. He nominated Mr. Studholme as a candidate for the wage-earners. A plank in platform of Labor was free and compulsory education and the concessions made by the parties in power have been made through the demands of labor. What we want is free colleges as well as free schools. Labor has stood for technical colleges for years. "Germany stands highest," he said, "in the mechanical line, due to the technical colleges, and if the candidate who claims to have been making a study of the subject had spent his time in Germany, instead of Rome, the bluff might have gone." (Laughter).

Mr. Rollo referred to the 3-cent-an-hour prison contract of the Whitney Government. This the Government had promised not to renew, through the efforts of the labor representative. Mr. Studholme has always been independent in the House. He supported measures which he considered in the interest of the greatest number, irrespective of party. Mr. Studholme was the first and only choice of the independent labor party and this cannot be said for the other candidates. One is a second choice and the other a fifth or sixth choice.

Mr. Chas. Welby, in seconding the nomination, said the promise made by the Government that the Central Prison contract will not be renewed may be like the promises made four years ago by the Conservative party.

There being no other nominations, the returning officer invited the candidates to speak. Mr. Scott said that while it was considered better to speak last, he would speak first and give his opponents an opportunity to tear him to pieces if they could. "I am not a candidate," he said, "to benefit myself. I quit doing things for myself years ago. I (Continued on page 3.)

W. H. WARDROPE, Liberal Candidate in West Hamilton.

There is nothing squeamish about Scott's attempted oratory. It's barefaced and open.

The most unpopular man in Hamilton is trying to popularize himself by making promises he knows he cannot keep.

Scott promises free school books and free schooling if you vote for him. Hang out for free meals and free drinks.

Mr. Scott seemingly does not know that there is no Dominion assisted immigration.

If John Milne would cut his profits he wouldn't need to cut his men's wages.

Is there no law against the attempt of wholesale bribery of Mr. Scott?

This technical college bribe has done dirty once too often. The people are on to it.

If Whitney is in earnest about this power matter the contracts for the work should be in his hands in less than two months. Why not wait until he can tell us exactly what the whole thing will cost us if we go in for it now, we may be sorry afterwards. Wait for the figures.

John Hoodless has a very hazy notion of the immigration question. Why doesn't he try to get posted?

A visit from Dr. Pyne is promised, I hope he won't tell us "to go to the devil and shake ourselves."

My friend Mr. Geo. Lynch-Staunton has a lot to say for a man who has no vote in this election. He can vote in neither city nor county, if I am not mistaken.

Regan, I suppose, can have a job up at the Asylum after the election.

The Spectator feels very sore about what it calls the Italian vote. Did the party get beaten at the registration courts?

I will wager a Merry Widow hat that John Milne's firm has made more money under the Laurier Government than it did under the Tory Government. I am willing to leave my books to decide. Will he take it up?

My advice is, let the Government figure out the cost of electric power as soon as it gets the tenders. Then let the people see the figures and then let them vote. We can wait a month or two.

What will Mr. Hendrie try to bribe us with? The new Central Prison farm? He can't let Scott beat him that way.

The Spectator got real mad when somebody said Mr. Hendrie promised us a technical college. What has it to say about Mr. Scott's double-barrelled bribe?

Yes, Mr. Milne's moulders walked the streets all winter because he refused to employ them unless they were willing to work for less wages. They could go hang or starve, and it looked as if he were trying to starve them into submission. Nice man to come whining around about the poor moulders being idle.

It's nothing but Wardrope up in the west end now.

Don't forget that it was the Canadian Manufacturers' Association that gutted the Ontario labor market with mechanics, after Laurier refused to bring these men here.

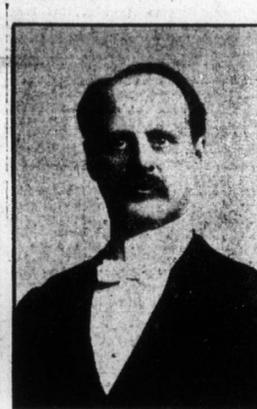

Has Scott any more bribes to hold out?

Mayor Stewart is feeling as well as could be expected after the two knock-out blows he got on Friday night.

Get busy for this week, now, boys. Vote for Wardrope and McClement.

A shrewd workman told me the other day that he had nothing against Studholme, only that he was being used to try to give Scott a chance—the only one he has—by drawing off a few votes; and this workman didn't intend to fall into the trap. He sees that a vote for Studholme under the circumstances is merely a vote for Scott as against McClement.

Mr. Wardrope has something good to say and says it well. Hear him at Point Hill to-night.

W. H. WARDROPE, Barrister, nominated by Charles Duff, seconded by W. J. Aitchison.

William Armstrong, wireworker, nominated by J. D. Cameron, seconded by Daniel McLaren.

John Strathearn Hendrie, manufacturer, nominated by T. J. Stewart, seconded by Thomas Lewis.

When Lieut.-Col. A. H. Moore called for nominations for West Hamilton at noon in Association Hall there were scarcely more than fifty electors present to hear the candidates lay down the planks on which they expect to be carried to power. The attendance gradually increased, but there was only a fair audience when the candidates began speaking.

The Socialist candidate was first nominated. There was a little hitch in connection with it, but the returning officer soon straightened it out. Martin Birk had seconded the nomination, but Col. Moore discovered that Mr. Birk was not a voter in the district. The name of Daniel McLaren was substituted as the seconder of the nomination.

Mayor Stewart, before nominating Col. Hendrie, announced that it had been mutually agreed that the Conservative candidate was to speak first, and Mr. Wardrope next, and that Col. Hendrie was to have five minutes to reply to Mr. Wardrope.

Mayor Stewart in nominating the Conservative candidate declared that in the opinion of 90 per cent. of the electors the Whitney Government would be returned to power on June 8. The Mayor dealt with the redistribution, the cheap school books, increased railway tax and the numbered ballot. For abolishing the latter, it had done nothing else, he declared, the Government should be returned. The reduction on school books, the Mayor described as a gracious act. The rest of the time of the most of it he crammed the audience with figures, and only those who have heard the Mayor reading power figures or cutting down overdrains know what an expert the Mayor is on figures.

In nominating Col. Hendrie, he said, "I don't believe the Mayor can make a better choice." (Silence.) The Mayor declared that if the Whitney Government was returned, as it would be, then it would be a disastrous thing for Hamilton to send to Toronto a member opposed to the Government.

The Mayor declared that with an argument on the power question, he declared the Council was fully authorized to close a contract with the Hydro Commission.

"I want to say a word about two of our leading newspapers," he said. "As far as the Spectator is concerned, it has been admitted that Mr. Southern is a heavy stockholder in the Cataract Company." He confessed that it was perfectly proper for Mr. Southern to run his newspaper as he liked, and while he was not prepared to say that Mr. Southern was not honest in his belief that the Cataract contract was for the city, at the same time he asked his auditors not to swallow all that said.

Referring to the Times, he got off this fine, laud remark: "The Times, on the other hand, and I can't understand what his object is, I don't believe they know themselves, except for one reason. They got it into their head that I have been going to oppose Adam Zimmerman in West Hamilton. I would like to know what Adam Zimmerman has got to do with Hydro power."

The Mayor denied as was argued by the papers and some of the aldermen, that the Cataract offer was worth 30 per cent. as good an offer as the Hydro. "The Times," he said, "has spoken of graft, four flusher and so on, but I have been in public life 23 years, and I dare the Times or any newspaper to lay a finger on me in all that time."

The Mayor declared that no newspaper was going to run him or scare him from doing his duty.

Mr. Wardrope Nominated. Charles Duff, in nominating the Liberal candidate, said he did so for three reasons. "The first of these," he said, "was because he is a worthy representative of the great Liberal party, which has had such an honorable part in the history of the Province in the past. The second reason was that he had the ability and fitness to represent us, and thirdly, because he is a man who is in (Continued on page 10.)

Fatal Auto Smash

New York, June 1.—A touring automobile with a party returning from Coney Island early to-day, was overturned while speeding up Ocean Parkway, and two of the men were killed. Two others were seriously injured, but not fatally. The dead are William Goubeard, aged 42 years, and Thomas Nolan, aged 45, both of Brooklyn. Those injured are Victor P. Brandies and Jas. McKenna. Brandies has a broken shoulder. Two other men who were in the car at the time of the accident escaped without injury. The automobile skidded while rounding a curve and overturned.

COUNTY COUNCIL.

Trouble Over Bill For Examination of Lunatic.

County Refuge—Anxious to Get to Circus.

The County Council did not proceed very far in the work it has before it this morning. Most of the members were anxious to get to the nomination meetings that were held in the county to-day and consequently the business had to wait. It adjourned until to-morrow morning. The only thing of interest was a rather lively scrap over a bill that had been tendered by Dr. Main, of Beverly, for an examination of a lunatic, who was to be committed to the asylum. There had been nothing to show that the lunatic was in destitute circumstances, and Councillor Binkley took occasion to block the work of the council for the course of an hour, until he was put right about the matter by the county treasurer, who said that the county was held liable for such examinations. The matter was referred to the township of Beverly to settle and allow the township to bill the county for the amount.

Some of the councillors are anxiously awaiting the event of the circus on Wednesday afternoon and from what could be gathered it is expected that the usual half-holiday will be given the councillors to enjoy their day of pleasure, which comes but once a year.

The presentation of the grand jury in regard to the county House of Refuge will be taken up to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock. It is expected that R. W. Bruce Smith, Inspector of prisons and hospitals will be present to talk the matter over with the councillors with a view to having the council build the House of Refuge. The claims against the county will be taken up on Tuesday.

FOUND DEAD.

George Patterson, Subject to Fits, Had Sudden Call.

Last evening about 8.30 the police found the body of a man in an alley in the rear of a house at the corner of Bay and Strachan streets, in a sitting posture against the fence. He was dead when found and the police removed the corpse to the city morgue where it was later identified by Mrs. Beatty as that of her brother, George Patterson, a teamster, 25 years of age, who lived at her house. The dead man was troubled greatly with asthma and was also subject to fits and it is thought that feeling a fit coming on he went into the alley and fell in such a position that he could not breathe on account of the asthma. He was seen about 6 o'clock by some boys walking in the vicinity of the alley. Dr. Balle was notified and he and the police investigated and concluded that death was due to natural causes, and that an inquest was not necessary.

The funeral will take place from his sister's residence, 501 James street north, on Wednesday at 8 o'clock, to St. Lawrence Church, thence to Holy Sepulchre cemetery for interment.

INDIAN KILLED.

Caledonia Man Struck by Train at Gowanda.

Buffalo, June 1.—Fred Deaver, 38 years old, an Indian whose home was at Caledonia, Ont., was run down and killed near Gowanda by a train on the Erie Railroad some time Saturday night. The mangled body was found along the tracks early yesterday morning by the crew of a freight train.

Deputy Medical examiner Howland investigated the case. He learned that Deaver was visiting some Indians on the Gowanda Reservation. None of the circumstances connected with the accident could be learned. The body was removed to the Morgue in this city.

CONTRACT CASE.

Light Companies at Law—Morden vs. Morden.

Justice Riddell presided over the High Court non-jury sittings this morning. The only case taken up was that of the American Street Lamp & Supply Company vs. Ontario Pipe Line Company, for breach of contract. The case was not finished at press time. Franklin Smoke, Toronto, for the plaintiff, and G. T. Blackstock, K. C., for the defendants. The alimony action of Morden vs. Morden will go on this afternoon. S. F. Washington, K. C., for the defendant, and W. E. S. Knowles for the plaintiff.

RESULTS ARE GOOD.

The results from the use of Parke's Bugbane are most satisfying. It exterminates bedbugs and all such vermin, and does not stain the woodwork or the bed clothing. Bugbane has been sold for years, and has always given satisfaction. Sold in a triangular bottle, 25¢. Parke & Parke, druggists.

The choir of Emmanuel Congregational Church will hold a song service in St. James' Presbyterian Church, in the early part of this month.

SOLUTION OF THE PROBLEM.

Difficulty Over Southam Home May be Overcome

By Using Building For Other Hospital Purposes

And Erecting Incurables' Home on the Mountain.

A special meeting of the Board of Hospital Governors was held this morning to consider the resolution passed by the City Council to take steps to restrain the building of the Southam Home on the Hospital grounds, and to submit a by-law to the ratepayers for funds to purchase a site and to erect a hospital on it. It looks as if the tangle might be straightened out if the city will undertake to purchase a site and complete the building now in course of erection and use it for hospital purposes.

William Southam, the donor, appeared before the board and withdrew the statement he made before the Finance Committee that he would withdraw his offer if the home was not built on the Hospital grounds. Mr. Southam said that if the city would take over the present building and complete it for hospital purposes, as had been suggested, and pay the difference it would cost to build the home on the mountain or another site, he would hand over the plans and a cheque for $13,000.

The Mayor suggested an informal meeting of the board and with the Council. The governors agreed to this, and a special meeting of the Council will likely be held this week.

Dr. Langrill, the medical superintendent, suggested that the building now being erected might be taken over by the city and used for delirium tremens cases. He says there are a great number of these. The jail is no place for them, because they cannot get proper treatment, and while they occasionally get into the hospital, that is not the proper place for them, either.

The notice with which City Solicitor Waddell was served on Saturday by W. A. H. Duff on behalf of residents of Barton Township, who are appealing to the Ontario Railway Board, to force Hamilton to give the township people water and sewer accommodation and to fix the rate on the assessment levied by the township assessor instead of the local department, is not scaring the city officials any. Barton has been threatening a long time to make this appeal and the officials are surprised that they did not make the move before. The grounds on which the city will fight the matter over before the Railway Board is that it will give Barton all the concessions it asks for if that section east of Sherman avenue and south of Barton street comes into the city. It is stated that the present sewers are not sufficiently large to carry off the sewage if township connections are made unless the annex sewer is extended from Lottridge to Main street. This would cost a lot of money and the city would not think of spending it unless Barton consents to annexation.

If the present appeal of the township is allowed by the board the city officials say that although the township owners will only pay about $1 a year for the treatment of sewage from each house it will cost the city $3.50.

The Mountain avenue school was sold by auction on Saturday to Dr. McNicol. The price was $3,750.

The Parks Board annual inspection, which has been delayed from time to time to make an extra rate will be made at 1.30 to-morrow afternoon.

F. S. Dewep has been granted a permit for two frame houses on Whitefield street, east of Lottridge, for G. B. Whitfield, to cost $1,600.

GOT ONE YEAR.

George White Sent Down For Theft and Perjury.

George White, found guilty of stealing and perjury, was sentenced to one year in Central Prison by Judge Monch this morning. His Honor, in passing sentence, said to
