Special Announcement.

We have made arrangements with Dr. B. J. Kendall Co., publishers of "A Treatise on the Horse and his Diseases," which will enable all our subscribers to obtain a copy of that valuable work free by sending their address (enclosing a two-cent stamp for mailing same) to Dr. B. J. KENDALL CO., ENOSBURGH FALLS, VT. This book is now recognized as standard authority upon all diseases of the horse, as its phenomenal sale attests, over four million copies having been sold in the past ten years, a sale never before reached by any publication in the same period of time. We feel confident that our patrons will appreciate the work, and be glad to avail themselves of this opportunity of obtaining a valuable book. It is necessary that you mention this paper in sending for the "Treatise." This offer will remain open for only a short time.

LEE BURN.

From our own correspondent.

Mrs. John Stewart is away on a week's visit to friends near Lucknow.

After a pleasant vacation from the cares of her school, Miss Jane Lunfield left last Saturday to resume her duties as teacher near Zurich, in Hay township. Maud Stirling, from near Porter's Hill, enjoyed part of her holidays as the guest of her cousins here. George Stirling, from the same place, also gave our burg a flying visit this week.

F. B. H. Laurason, at one time a resident here and connected with the I. O. G. T. No. 213, was present at its last meeting, and installed the new officers for this quarter, giving a pleasing address with reference to the district work of the I. O. G. T. in this county. Bond is a resident of London, and a member of the I. O. G. T. there. He also made a stay of several days visiting old friends in this section.

A pea harvester working in our neighborhood attracted general attention last week. This is the latest invention to save man's muscle about here in the harvest field. The gentler sex are at a loss to see the steady improvement man kind can make to save labor, while women's intellect cannot invent anything to save their daily labor in the household line, to ease it and make it only a pleasure. A churning machine and baking machine, to save that constant pressure of women's hands, would bring a blessing two-fold on the inventor's head from the women of this section.

It was a pleasant surprise to the congregation of the Presbyterian church here last Sabbath to see the Rev. J. A. Turnbull, B.A., LL.B., St. Mary's, in the pulpit conducting the service and preaching an impressive sermon from Gen. xxi., 18. For a period of nearly four years he was pastor here, resigning his charge in 1884 to go to St. Mary's as pastor of the first Presbyterian church there. Quite a number of the congregation shook hands after the service with him and Mrs. Turnbull, who was with him, with many friendly words of enquiry after the welfare of one and other since last he met them. We hope Mr. Turnbull will be long spared to labor in the Master's vineyard and his teachings gather many ripe sheaves for the garner.
