An Imposing Funeral.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Edward H. Davey took place yesterday afternoon and was attended by a concourse of citizens of all denominations. A large number of the congregation of the C. E. Cathedral were present, testifying to the regard and esteem they always held for the deceased lady who was an earnest church worker and whose kindly disposition endeared her to all. The casket which contained the remains bore many floral offerings from the friends of the deceased, and the scene at the cemetery was an imposing one. The Lord Bishop officiated assisted by Rev. Canon White, Rector of the Cathedral, and Rev. Jas. Bell. The members of the Cathedral Choir in surplices were also present. At the Mortuary Chapel the Psalm was read by Rev. James Bell, His Lordship the Bishop reading the Lesson: "The hymn, 'Blessed are the pure in heart' was sung; at the graveside the service was conducted by Rev. Canon White. At the conclusion of the solemn and sad ceremonial the choir touchingly rendered the hymn, "Peace Perfect Peace," and the Lord Bishop pronounced the Benediction.

Bonuses for Peary's Crew.

By yesterday's mail the Newfoundlanders residing in St. John's who were in the Roosevelt under Commander Peary on the memorable trip which culminated in the discovery of the North Pole, received a letter from President Hubbard, of the Peary Arctic Club, New York. The missives say that it afforded the Club great pleasure to adopt Commander Peary's suggestion that each man receive a bonus of $125 in recognition of his valued services at the expedition, and enclosed a cheque for the amount. Each man was praised for the valuable aid rendered the Commander. Messrs. John Wiseman and John Barnes, firemen, who assisted in the work of taking tidal observations, were given extra pay for this work which occupied 8 months, and they received an additional cheque for $75. The men who received these reminders of the Club's appreciation and the welcome remittances are: — Thomas Gushue, mate; John Murphy, boatswain; Bank Scott, 2nd engineer; scamen John Barnes, Denis Murphy, John Coady, John Wiseman, Richard Butler, Patrick Skeans, Patrick Joyce, and William Pritchell, the latter second cook of the ship.

Took Prisoners Back.

Const. J. J. McDonald who came by the express yesterday left for Sydney by last evening's Bruce express with P. Brian and W. Callahan in custody, to be tried at Sydney before Magistrate Forbes for stealing $100 from a schooner belonging to C. T. Straight, and laying at Sydney Harbor. Both men were handcuffed together, and a crowd was at the station to see them leave. McDonald is an officer of the Provincial Detective Force, of Nova Scotia, and is well known to Newfoundlanders. He had charge of the men in the docks of the D. I. S. Co., at Sydney, for several years. He recently returned from British Columbia where he captured two men for robbing one of the C. P. R. expresses. Only a slight clue was left when the men—Brian and Callahan—stole the trunk from the schooner. In the bottom of the dory which they used to take the trunk away was found a cleanser for a revolver which the captain identified as his. The watchman then remembered the chaps who took the dory, and from his description of them McDonald succeeded in tracing them.

A Dare-Devil Adventurer.

The career of John B. Moisant is no less amazing than the feats with which he has been startling the aviation world. He settled down when he was eighteen in San Salvador, the Central American Republic, being the first to introduce Edison's phonograph there. Then he ran a large salt works on the coast, inventing machinery to deposit on his land salt water, which on evaporating left the salt behind, as well as a tidal motor, which raised a million gallons of water a day by the action of the waves. Then he organized a raid on San Salvador because he heard that two of his brothers had been thrust into prison. His brothers were released, but his salt property, which he valued at $40,000, was confiscated. So Moisant organized another raid, which was unsuccessful owing to the U. S. A. Government. After that he went to Paris, and there succumbed to the fascinations of aeroplaning.

LADIES' GOLF.—A ladies' competition was played at Bally Haly Golf Club yesterday afternoon for Mrs. R. B. Job's Cup, and was won by Miss Pauline Baird who holds the cup for one year.

Tim Shannahan and Dr. Grenfell.

"Do you know," said Tucker, "I think we're the queerest people under the sun. One day we're firing bunches of flowers at a man and the next morning we're ready to kick him."

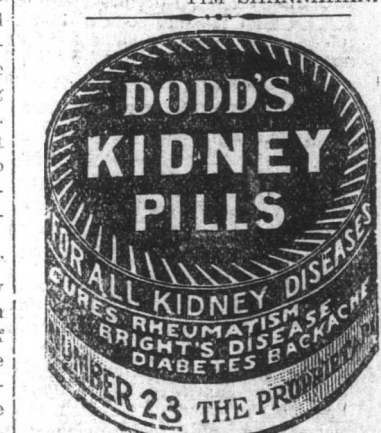

"That's only human nature," said Mrs. Tucker, and human nature has a lot to do with us."

"I know that," says Tucker, "but a fellow can't help smiling at it, just the same. Now nearly all the papers in town are working overtime roasting Dr. Grenfell, and some of these would have you fired in jail if you ventured to open your mouth a few months ago."

"What are you talking about?" asked Delaney. "Why, you'd think you struck the town to-day. Don't you know that when people's corns are walked on they generally squeal; but they don't mind you walking on other people's bunions. For my part, I believe the man who takes things seriously in this town will be kept pretty busy."

As far as Dr. Grenfell is concerned we know he's into an enterprise and we also know that he has got to raise money. This is the age of advertising, and he must advertise us as being pretty badly off or people won't take notice of him. In the olden times charitable men went around in sackcloth and helped the poor and needy. They had no illustrated lectures in their days, nor did they write nine or ten columns of a log telling how many times they fell overboard. But now we are living in a different age. You have to put on steam to arouse sympathy, and genuine sympathy in those days means hard dollars and cents.

"There's nothing in this world," said Mrs. Tucker, "that makes my blood boil like any one running down our people or our country. Sure if this man Grenfell wants to come here and stray away down to the Labrador, let him do so; but surely we're not so far gone as to need a collection taken up by any one to aid our fishermen. What's all the talk about big revenues and prosperity going to amount to if we allow outsiders to drag us in the mire, to show us up to the outside world as savages, half-starved and almost totally ignorant. 'Tis no use to be 'nice' on this mat-
