The Rossleys have had many requests to produce "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs" again, as the store people did not see it. Everyone knows the Rossleys are original enough not to have to repeat anything again and when they say by special request it is really and truly special request. This pantomime, "Snow White" was of course the best. A beautiful story beautifully portrayed. There will be many new specialties. The Rossleys will give a dance at the close of their pantomime season, which will be conducted on high class principles, with the best music, and will be the event of the season.
