FROM ST. JOHN'S TO SUVLA BAY.

By Returned Soldier and Chaplain There was a full audience at Wesley Church last night to hear a returned hero from the Dardanelles, Rev. W. D. Stenlake, tell of his experiences from the time of leaving here until his being invalided to England. Revs. H. Royle, T. B. Darby, B.A., Hon. J. R. Bennett, Acting Premier, C. H. Hutchings, K.C., and A. W. Martin, Esq., with the lecturer were on the platform. Rev. Mr. Royle then introduced Sir Joseph Outerbridge, Chairman of the Patriotic Association, who presided, and after expressing his pleasure at being present, referred to if a minister's duty was to fight devil and all his works, that we and security from tyranny. Sir Joseph made a splendid opening speech, and then the soldier parson gave a thor-ough and consecutive review of the work of the first five hundred, comwacuation of Gallipoli, and his re-urn to hospital. Mr. Stenlake, who by the way, belongs to Jersey, Channel slands, told his story with all the oright vivacity of a Frenchman, comstatement of a Britisher. He paid a high tribute to his comrades who had allen either from sickness or Turkish mentioned no names, so as not to harrow the feelings of many present, whose loved ones lay on the shores of Sulva Bay, or the slopes of Caribou Hill. Telling of his rambles in Lemnos, Alexandria and Cairo his hearers were amused to hear of Nowtones and the standard of t were amused to hear of a Newfound-ander, who pummelled an Egyptian policeman for whipping a woman, and told him if he tried it on again, he would give him some more fist.

In rapid review he recapitulated the happenings in camp and trench and hospital, and an hour had all too quickly passed when the speaker took his seat. Mrs. Miller the

On belief of the song "My Task." On behalf of the League, Mr. A. W. Martin proposed a vote of thanks from all to Sir Joseph Outerbridge for his great kindness in presiding, and expressed also the pleasure of Wesley congregation on having present the Hon. Mr. Bennett, Colonial Secretary, and Lady Hor-wood, Mrs. Browning, Mrs. Clift and other ladies of the W.P.A. It seemed as if our common anxiety, and com bringing us as denominations closer together, and he rejoiced that it was so. Over fifty young men had gone from each of the Western Canadian Methodist Conferences to protect the Empire, and several of them Newfoundlanders. He believed in safety first, and war was justifiable, and muscular Christianity also under certain circumstances, Hon. J. R. Bennett rose to second the motion, and referred to erbridge had given our Colony since the war commenced; he eulogized the "fighting parson" as he hoped Mr. Stenlake would now be known. He referred to the heroism of our brave Up by Firemen.

The S. S. Eagle, Capt. Couch, has been held up in this harbour the past twenty-four hours on account of her firemen walking ashore when the ship was ready to leave for North Sydney for a coal cargo for Rowring Bros.

A number of West Coast bankers have given up the Grand Bank fishery and have been converted into foreign fish carriers, and for the next four months will take salt bulk from Newfoundland to Boston and Gloucester. The freight rate offered is % of a cent per pound, with immediate disented and the ports mentioned. With favourable weather conditions a schr. could make two trips a month netting from $300 to $500 per trip.

firemen walking ashore when the ship was ready to leave for North Sydney for a coal cargo for Bowring Bros., Ltd. It is evident that this attitude of the Eagle's stokers arose out of the local firemen on that ship were dismissed because of their mutinous conduct on board.

The holding up of the Eagle means expense and inconvenience to the ownients appearing at the Nickel Theatre, yesterday, was sufficient to draw very large audiences. In the Cast with him were Ruth Stonehouse, Helen Dunbar, Bryant Washburn, Wallace Berry and Lester Cuneo. The picture is entitled "The Slim Princess" and it is one of George Ade's best works. The continuation of "The Strange Case of Mary Page" proved as attractive as preceding chapters. This evening there will be a repetition of the whole show. Wednesday the great Vitagraph picture "Hearts and the High-way" will be given. It is in five acts and is very interesting.

BIG FUN COMPETITION AT BRIT-ISH THEATRE.

The Scotch act at Rossley's last night was most enjoyable, and the various performers were greeted with thunderous applause. Little Kathleen in her Scotch suit looked fine and as usual sang her numbers beautifully. Miss Gertie Edwards received hearty applause for her rendering "Can't you hear me calling?" But the solid hit of the show was Miss Clara Squires who appeared as Wee MacGregor, with Mrs. Rossley. She simply had the house in roars. Another beautiful act was given by Misses Baird and Squires; the witty sayings and dancing of those two little girls delighted all; the costumes were much admired. Mr. Rossley has been asked repeatedly to give another competition as several have already sent in their names. So Friday night will see the best of all competitions. Three money prizes are offered and all competitors are asked to send in their names early. The Scotch act at Rossley's last
