Concerning Crisco

Crisco contains no water or salt and is therefore as near 100 per cent. perfect cooking fat as can be produced. Because of this Crisco is richer than lard or butter. Crisco for deep frying has no equal. Crisco for shortening makes flaky tender crusts. Crisco for cake making gives cakes a fine, feathery, moist texture.

Church Bell Creates Discord

WEIMAR, Germany, March 23 (A. A.)—Completion recently of Germany's largest church bell has brought about much discord in certain political circles. The Monarchists insist upon calling it the "Kaiser's bell," while the Republicans have given it the name of "The bell of the Rhine."

The bell was cast here for the famous Cathedral of Cologne, but there have been repeated delays in shipment, according to German authorities, because it was feared it might be confiscated by the French.

Fads and Fashions.

Silver embroidery is used to give the effect of lace on the tulle skirt of a dance frock.

Very chic is the short plaited cape that hangs from a band that ties like a cravat.

Short-sleeved jersey dresses piped in contrasting color will be excellent for sports.

Among the most popular printed silks are those in black and white or in Persian design.

A very chic frock consists of a bodice of white crepe and a wrapped skirt of black satin.

THE ORIGIN OF LACROSSE.

In the Memoire of Nicholas Perrot, written in 1665, the first mention is made of one of the most interesting inventions of the Indian and one that gives another side to his much-maligned figure, for the was the originator of the game now popular in many countries, that of lacrosse. It was played with variously shaped sticks, all of which were laced with deer throngs or fibre. Balls also varied in material, some being of wood covered with buckskin, others of burned clay, hair, fibre, bone or stone. As in athletics to-day, severe training was enforced before a match, and betting was also customary between the spectators. The figure drawn by the various historians is that the North American Indian athlete was zealous, untiring, scornful of pain, strictly honorable and, in short, a thorough-going sportsman, whose first instinct was "to play the game."

NEW YORK, April 8.—Young Striling, Georgia light heavyweight signed yesterday through his father-manager "Pa" Stirling, for two fights in the metropolitan district. The first will be on April 29, probably against Mike Burke, of New York, for the benefit of the Olympic fund, and the second in Newark, probably May 26, against Jimmy Slattery, of Buffalo.

NEW YORK, April 8.—The Queensboro A. C. announced yesterday it had signed Frankie Genaro, United States Flyweight champion, to three matches during the summer, including a title contest with Pancho Villa, world's champion, in September. The others are with Bud Taylor, of Terre Haute, Ind., in May; and "Cannon Ball" Eddie Martin, of Brooklyn, in June.

NEW YORK, April 8.—Negotiations for the heavyweight match between Harry Wills and Bartley Madden at the Queensboro Stadium, May 13th, were closed yesterday, when Wills signed a contract to box the veteran Irish heavyweight in a 15-round bout. Promotion of the match in the outdoor arena was agreed upon by arrangement with Newark promoters, who originally signed the bout as an indoor attraction last February.

BALTIMORE, Md., April 8.—The state athletic commission last night dismissed all charges growing out of the recent bout here between Harry Greb, middleweight titleholder, and Fay Keiser, of Cumberland, Md.

Benny Franklin, president of the Olympic Athletic Club, which staged the bout, last week before the Commission charged that John Snyder, Keiser's manager, had approached him in an attempt to have the referee disqualify Greb and thus give Keiser possession of Greb's title. The attempt to have the fight "thrown" Franklin said was made a few hours before the bout started.

Snyder characterized Franklin's statement as "damnable lies," although he admitted that he had taken part in a conversation with the promoter. He declared, however, that this conversation referred solely to complimentary tickets, and when the Commission sought to substantiate the statements of both men, the principals declared that no one else was present at the time. The charges against Snyder were then dismissed for insufficient evidence.

CHICAGO, April 8.—Captain Bob Roper, a pugilistic product of the world war, has laid aside his boxing gloves, which have earned him a fortune in 102 ring contests since his discharge from the army in 1918, to become President of a New Orleans chemical company.

Roper entered the ring because he was broke when discharged from the army, owed $1,700, and needed immediate funds for his family.

In the six years of boxing Roper fought all the leading heavyweights, except Dempsey, and never was knocked out. He served six years as an enlisted man before being appointed a captain at the outbreak of the war.

NEW YORK, April 8.—Francis Descamps, manager of Georges Carpentier, yesterday cabled acceptance of the plan to advance the Gene Tunney-Carpentier light-heavyweight fight at a date early in June in order to avoid conflict between the winner and Tom Gibbons on July 4 in the Middle West, Billy Gibson, manager for Tunney said.

A French lightweight named Fritsch will be in the Carpentier party when it arrives here May 18, the cable said.

The Passing HourTHE PRETTY YOUNG LADY.

A pretty young lady named Jane, While walking was caught in the rain. She ran—almost flew, Her complexion did, too, And she reached home exceedingly plain.

A Flight of Fancy.

"Oh, for the wings of a dove," sighed the poet.

"Order what you like," rejoined the prosaic person, "but I should prefer the breast of a chicken."

Not His Fault.

At the Pilgrims' dinner to Sir Auckland Geddes, Mr. J. R. Clynes told a good story of two laborers in a gasworks, one of whom was wheeling away two barrows of coke to every one by his mate. The foreman noticed this and said to the less energetic workman: "Your mate's doing twice as much work as you."

"Well!" was the delightful reply, "you shouldn't blame me for that, I've told him about it."

It was one of London's gray days when one American greeted another American in Piccadilly.

"Lil of London's got no sky-scraper yet," remarked one, gazing Heavenward. "I never saw a sky that needed scraping more."

Forsythe met his friend Walters in the street.

"That's a fine umbrella you're carrying," said Forsythe to his friend. "Isn't it?" replied the other.

"Yes, it's certainly good," added Forsythe. "But did you come by it honestly?"

"I haven't quite made out. It started to rain the other day when I was on my way home from business and I stepped into a doorway to wait until it stopped. Then I saw a young fellow coming along with a nice large umbrella, and I thought if he were going as far as my house I would beg shelter under his ramp. So I stepped out and asked: 'Where are you going with that umbrella, young fellow?' and he dropped the umbrella and ran."

Some Joke.

Carroll Livingstone Wainwright, who since his marriage to Edith Gould has become a successful miniature painter, said at a dinner at the Ritz in New York.

"I like to paint miniatures of children. I love child humor. It's so cruel, isn't it?"

"Ever hear the story of the little child who shouted: 'Mum! Mum! Mum!'?"

There's a man upstairs kissing nurse!"

"As her mother bounded up the steps the little girl broke into loud laughter and shrieked: 'April fool! It's only father!'"
