"He struck me the infernal little cur, and I'll kill—"
"Not a word more from you, Weish. What made you strike him, Dooley!"
"Look at Keogh's belly, sir," almost sobbed the little Irishman in his rage and grief. "See where he kicked him."
Sure enough, there on the glistening cost an ugly lump was rising and a jagged groove plainly showed where the cruel boot had struck, while Keogh still quivered. For a moment young Hearn was too angry to trust hiraself to speak. He stood there with his eye fairly blazing At last he turned to the sergeant:
"This man has been frequently cautioned never to strike or kick a horse, I suppose?"

Epps's Cocoa — Grateful and Comfort Ing. "—By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected Cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with elicately flavored beverage which may save us many heavy doctors' bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds of subtle maladies are floating around us ready to attack wherever there is a weak point. We may oscape many a fatal shaft by keping ourselves well fortified with pure blood and a properly-nourished frame."—(Uvil Service Gazette, Made simply with boiling water or milk.
