THE SEPARATE SCHOOLS

Eligibility of the Orders to Teach Before Appeal Court.

Toronto, Aug. 23. - Upon the authorty of the Lieutenant-Governor-in-Council, Thomas Mulvey, assistant prorincial secretary, today submitted to Jepan's Last Move the court of appeal of Ontario a stated case upon the eligibility of members Japanese plenipotentiaries today at of different Roman Catholic bodies to teach in the separate schools. The rese, which has excited great interest, began in Ottawa, where a lay mem ber of the Roman Catholic Church objected to unqualified teachers being appointed by the clergy to positions there. The defendants in the case declare hat as the orders, to which the teachrs belong, were in existence long before the adoption of the British North a move, or the plenipotentiaries had America act, this act does not apply reached the parting of the ways. o them, and that they are exempt from examination as teachers in

Portsmouth, N. H., Aug. 23. - The the conclusion of the afternoon session of the peace conference threw the cards upon the table.

It was the dramatic moment-the noment to which all the previous proeedings of the conference had led. The protocols involving agreement upon eight of the twelve conditions riginally presented by Japan had been signed.

One side or the other must make The adversaries faced each other cross the table. Of course, it was well understood what would happen, but that, in a way, only made i more dramatic. Figuratively, President Roosevel sat silent and the move in the great hiplomatic fame passed to Japan, Komura's Concessions. Paron Komura, in a few words, explained that Japan, in her great desire entered the conference-room M. Witte for peace, was ready to make certain 'modifications" of the original articles n the hope that Russia could find it ossible to accept them. He then presented in writing to M. Witte the compromise proposition which President Roosevelt had sugthe gested It was concrete and specific, and it ollowed the lines already outlined, It offered to withdraw article 9, prolviding for the payment by Russia of Japan's bill for the cost of the war, sion of Sakhalin, so modified as to include an arrangement for the re purchase by Russia of the northern

In addition, it offered to withdraw Tenders will not be considered unless made on the printed form supplied, and signed with the actual signatures of tenders. In addition, it offered to withdraw entirely articles 11 and 12 (surrender of the interned warships and limitation are not proposed by the form of the interned warships and limitation are not proposed by the form of the upon Russia's sea power in the Far East)

It was President Roosevelt's compromise and M. Witte knew its contents as well as Baron Komura. The question of whether or not he had been "bluffing" was was put to the test; without a moment's hesitation, M. Witte explained that the modification proposed was merely a sham, a change of phraseology, asking Russia to pay war tribute under another

He could not accept it. He told Baron Komura Russia wanted peace. She had given the proofs in accept ng every article involving the ipon which the war was fought, but she could fight; and money for tribute she would not pay-not a kopeck. He asked Baron Komura to withdraw all demands for tribute.

to meet again Saturday, ostensibly to permit M. Witte to place in writing, s the rules of the conference demand, In reality, the adjournment over two lays was to give each side an oppor-

And so the plenipotentiaries separattunity to consult its Government for he last time. The outlook is black-many believe never was so black as tonight. The Japanese are not talking The only possible line of Japanese oncessions is believed to lie in the direction of a diminution of the amoun of the purchase money demanded for he north half of Sakhalin.

The decision rests, therefore, as has from the first, with Russia. Unless the Emperor agrees to yield be tween now and Saturday, the end is ikely to come that day. And the indications from Peterhof hange of heart on the part of the Emperor, seem to indicate even a firmer determination to yield neither ter
