The astral colors are black, onyx and white. People of this date are very unselfish. They will deny themselves, anything to further the interests of friends any relatives. These people are quickly attracted and just as quickly repulsed, though they are usually too kind to display their feelings. These people are very fond of beautiful things in nature and art, and among them are to be found art critics, artists and writers. They have a limpid purity of style when properly educated, that resembles the clear blue shimmering water which is their native element.

Mr. Scott has represented this constituency for nearly twelve years, first as a Unionist and later as a Coalitionist. He owes some of his popularity in the riding doubtless to local influence, being well known among the shipping community as a powerful advocate of maritime inter
