MIDSUMMER MEET AT CHATHAM PROVIDED SOME SPLENDID RACING

Exciting Contests and Some Surprises in the Five Events—Track Gathers in Two More Records.

The two-days' midsummer race meet held on the Chatham Speedway, Wednesday and Thursday, proved the most successful yet held, both in point of attendance and the quality of the programme provided. There were 45 entries in the five events, the largest field of horses ever entered for a maritime meet, and every event was a contest of unusual merit.

The feature of the first day's racing Wednesday afternoon was the breaking of the stallion trotting record of the Dominion by The Exposer (2:06), owned by H. C. Jewett, of Fredericton.

The track was fast and all the classes were marked by fast times, there being some surprises. The Exposer won the 2:16 class in straight heats with the Montreal mare, Lady Gratton second. In the 2:15 class, Roy Vola, owned by W. B. Lint, of Fredericton won after five heats while in the 2:24 class Touz, owned by W. G. Fenwick, Bathurst, captured first money, with Singer, owned by Mich-Mid-Summer No 2

There was a record breaking attendance Thursday afternoon. The weather was all that could be desired and the big crowd witnessed some of the best races ever seen. The 2:20 event took five heats to decide a winner and the free-for-all went four. The first heat of the 2:20 finished with Roy Miller in first position and all the other horses well up. All the rest of the heats in this event were close. In the second Jubilee fell on the back stretch throwing the driver. For a few moments it looked as if the horse was badly hurt but fortunately neither horse or the driver was injured.

All the heats of the free-for-all were interesting although the time was not fast. The driver of Fern Hal was taken from the sulky before the second heat started by the judges who put Cameron in his place. The latter winning the race. The judges awarded $25 of the mare's winnings to him. The third heat was almost a dead heat with Peter Farren almost posing Fern Hal out. The first heat of this event went to John A. Hal. The final heat looked like Peter Farren all the way but he broke badly coming up the stretch.

The summary is as follows:
2:20 Trot and Pace,

All the drivers at this meeting lined up in front of the band stand and each was made a presentation of $10 by the Association—Chatham Commercial.

ACTION AGAINST KEDGEWICK PEOPLE
Fredericton, N. B., July 11—Twenty settlers of Kedgewick, a lumbering village on the International Railway, are being proceeded against by the department of lands and mines under the law respecting forest fires as a result of the recent forest fire which did upwards of $150,000 of damage in that district. The papers have been sworn out, before Magistrate E. F. Matheson, before whom the defendants will appear in Campbellton on July 15. Some of the charges are for fighting fires without a permit, while others are charged with allowing fires to burn on their lands without making any attempt to put them out.

"LONG LIVE THE DEAD" WILL BE THE BUGLER'S CALL

Plans for Impressive Ceremonial at Paris on Victory Day, in which 20,000 Picked Allied Troops Will Participate.

Paris, July 16.—Twenty thousand picked men representing all the armies will parade from Fort. Maitlot to the Place de la Republique on Victory day July 14. How many millions will view the triumphant march of the victorious armies is a matter of conjecture.

A squadron of Republican Guards will lead the procession, then come Marshal Foch and his staff, then General Pershing and the American generals; then Field Marshal Haig at the head of the Highlanders, Irish Fusiliers and English troops.

Gallant little Belgium will be represented next by Generals Guilian and Lenman, the hero of Leige. The Contingents of Japan, Greece, Poland and Portugal, Siberia, Roumania, Siam and Czecho-Slovakia, consisting of one company and flag, will march in the order named.

Even Germany Represented.
Even Germany will be given a place in the Victory Parade. German flags captured from the enemy in the bitter battles of 1918, in the memorable days of the Yser, the Marne, the Somme and Verdun will be carried by the units which emerged victorious from these engagements. There is one flag at present at the Minister of the Interior, in M. Pains' private office, the staff of which is broken and the banner in shreds. It is the flag of Fort Vaux, which Major, now Lieutenant-Colonel, Raynal, defender of Vaux, will bear down the boulevard. M. Pains' eyes filled with tears as he told the correspondent today how he regretted to part with the flag, even for a few hours. The flag will be returned to the Pantheon after the parade.

Under the Arc de Triumphe there is being constructed a huge catafalque with an empty coffin embodying the souls of the million and a half men who died in France.
At this point the troops will come to attention, Marshals Foch and Pétain, Field Marshal Haig, Generals Pershing, Guilian and Diaz and others high officers will salute, the soldiers will present arms while the bugler will trumpet "Long Live the Dead."

MARSHAL JOFFRE WILL LEAD TROOPS

During the Triumphant March in Paris on Bastille Day.

Paris, July 16.—Marshal Joffre, it was announced today in the lobby of the Chamber of Deputies, will lead the troops during the first triumphant march here on Bastille Day, July 14th, but on arriving at the Presidential stand to salute President Poincare, he will leave the procession and will be invited to take his seat beside the President.

More than 100 deputies, dissatisfied with the place given Marshal Joffre in the parade, introduced in the Chamber a resolution, which they signed, inviting the Government "to give Marshal Joffre and commanders of armies and army corps under him places in the victory parade merited by their eminent services in the battle of the Marne, which saved the country and civilization."

An official note was issued today saying:
"The newspapers announce the Government has not invited Marshal Joffre to participate in Monday's parade in the place which is due him. This news is false."

The name of Adrian Gil-Spear, a scenarist of reputation, is well known in the motion picture world. Mr. Gil-Spear is a capable photoplaywright and his adaptation of "The Make-Believe Wife," which appears at the Opera House on Friday and Saturday attests fully to his skill in this field.
Many men and women are not seen at their best until some great storm of life comes along. The best swabbers in their hearts are hecimens that they little knew slept there. Come and see "The Make-Believe Wife" at the Opera House on Friday and Saturday and imagine what you would have done under the same strange circumstances.
It takes a lot of philosophy to enable a man to admire a woman after he discovers that she and he certainly was for him.
