England win. the cap, Ottawa town running up. The intercollegiate system had been found to work well and would be continued. The match against the Quebec union, in securing so favorable a draw had made a much better showing than expected. The freamure's report exhibited a balance on the right side of $84, and was considered eminently satisfactory. Several motions were made, among them being one by O'Mailey, of Ottawa college, in favor of the adoption of the samp-back system which prevalls in the States. Mr. Hamilton Merritt spoke vigorously against the metion, and if was overwhelmingly rejected. A resolution by Chief Stewart, of Hamilton, that clubs should be required to adopt distinctive colors, which should be registered with the secretary to avoid duplication, shared a better fate, being carried unanimously. It was decided to play for the cup by ties again. The following officers were elected: President, A. H. Campbell, jr., Toronto F.
