ADDRESS AND PRESENTATION.

The entertainment and Christmas tree in S. S. No. 14, Brooke, concession 9, on Wednesday, Dec. 14th, was a decided success. A very large crowd was in attendance. The program consisted of readings, recitations and songs by the pupils of the school. These were excellently rendered and reflect great credit on Mr. Acton, their teacher. Mr. Duncan Livingston, of Alvinston, sang in his usual happy style and Miss Ada McGugan's solos were beautifully rendered. Mr. George Willoughby made an efficient chairman and ably filled the chair. A very pleasing part of the program was a presentation of an address and a beautiful gold ring to Mr. Acton who is leaving the section, after 3 years of hard work. Following is the address: The entertainment and Christmas tree section, after 3 years of hard work. Fo lowing is the address:

To Mr. Acton.

Dear Teacher,—We understand you are about to leave us and we feel it our duty to acknowledge in some way our appreciation of your services, which you have so faithfully and carefully performed. We believe and know that the intellect of every boy and girl under your care and training in this school, has been very much benefitted and no doubt we will in years to come reap fruits from the labors you have bestowed upon us here, in making us fit to combat more successfully the obstacles of life, and training us to be more capable to manage our affairs in business in future years, when we have to mingle in the world as men and women. During your stay with us you have conducted your duties as teacher, both faithfully and successfully. You have always governed your schuol by force of kindness instead of by stern discipline. You have won our affectiou and esteem and as an acknowledgement of such we ask you to accept this ring, not for its intrinsic value, but as a token of the high esteacher in this school, during the past three years. While we regret to have you leave us, we wish you every success and happiness in whatever calling you may pursue in your future life.

Mr Acton replied at some leugth in well chosen words, expressing his regret at leaving the section and many friends

Farewell Address.

Previous to leaving Glencoe for Watford Miss Annie E. Hume was called upon by the members of her Sabbath school class and presented with the following address accompanied by a dainty cabinet of stationery.

Union Sunday School, S. S. No. 8, Mosa.

Dear friend and teacher:—We as the pupils of your Sabbath class for the year that has passed and gone have gathered around you as our beloved teacher for the last time. We have come to the parting of our ways. beloved teacher for the last time. We have come to the parting of our ways Perhaps they may never touch again But we shall not soon forget you nor your earnest efforts in sowing the Good Seed in our hearts. May itin-deed spring forth in a harvest of golden abundance. For the zeal you have manifested in your Master's service a higher reward than earthly shall be yours, but for the interest you have shown in our behalf we would ask of you to accept as a token would ask of you to accept as a token of our love and appreciation this little gift to prize not for its mere intrinsic value, but as a memento of the good wishes extended towards you by your Sabbath class of 1906. As you go out from our midst we join in wishing that God's richest benediction and that God's richest benediction and peace may be ever with you. And should He in His All wise Providence deem best that we see each other no more here below, then let us in hope lift up our eyes towards that distant dawning of "Time Everlasting," when we shall all again join hands around that Great White Throne singing with the Angelic Host the song around that Great White Throne singing with the Angelic Host the song of Moses and the Lamb and there to be with Him throughout all Eternity.
Signed on behalf of the class:
WILLIE SPALDING,
FRED NETHERCOTT,
GREAGE LONG.

GEORGE IONES.

Miss Hume acknowledged the kindly sentiments expressed in a few fitting words, after which an oyster supper was served and the remainder of the evening spent in music and games at which all present thoroughly enjoyed themselves. On the following evening Miss Hume was the recipient of a handsome case of toilet articles, a token of remembrance from her day school pupils.
