

A Father's Story.

HAPPINESS RESTORED WHEN HOPE HAD ALMOST GONE.

His Daughter Began to Droop and Fade—Was Attacked with Hemorrhage and Life was Despaired of—She is Again Enjoying Robust Health.

From the Brantford Courier.

A recent addition to the Grand Trunk staff in this city, is Mr. Thos. Clift, who is living at 75 Chatham street. Mr. Clift, who was formerly a policeman in the great city of London, is a fine looking specimen of an Englishman of the type so often seen in the Grand Trunk employ, and who makes so desirable a class of citizens. Since his advent here he has been a warm advocate of that well known medicine, Dr. Williams' Pink Pills; and through his endorsement, dozens of boxes have been sold to his friends and acquaintances.

A Courier representative, anxious, although not surprised, to know the reason for Mr. Clift's warm eulogy of the pills, called on that gentleman recently. Mr. Clift willingly consented to an interview, and the following story told his reason for being so sincere an advocate of the world renowned medicine. "Some five years ago," said Mr. Clift, "my daughter Lily began to droop and fade, and became disabled either for work or pleasure. A doctor in London was called in and he prescribed exercise and a general 'rousing up' as the best medicine to effect a cure. My daughter did her best to follow his instructions, but she forced herself to work completely, and she gradually grew worse. One night I and my wife were terribly alarmed by a cry from Lily, and hastening to her room found her gulping up large quantities of blood. I rushed for a doctor and he did his best to stop her hemorrhage, but admitted to me that her case was very critical. She drooped away to a veritable shadow, and for weeks when I went to my work I feared I might not see her alive again. This went on for a long time until a friend recommended my daughter to try the effect of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. She consented to do so and in a comparatively brief period a decided benefit was perceptible. She persisted with the use of the pills and gradually rose from a bed of suffering and sickness until she once again attained robust young womanhood. For the last three years she has been in excellent health. It was Pink Pills that virtually brought her from the mouth of the grave and preserved for me my only daughter. Now do you wonder why I sound their praises and recommend them at every opportunity?"

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills strike at the root of the disease, driving it from the system and restoring the patient to health and strength. In cases of paralysis, spinal troubles, locomotor ataxia, sciatica, rheumatism, erysipelas, scrofulous troubles, etc., these pills are superior to all other treatment. They are also a specific for the troubles which make the life of so many women a burden, and speedily restore the rich glow of health to pale and sallow cheeks. Men broken with overwork, worry or excesses, will find in Pink Pills a certain cure. Sold by all dealers or sent post-paid, at 50c. a box, or six boxes for $2.50, by addressing the Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, Brockville, Ont. or Schenectady, N. Y. Beware of imitations and substitutes alleged to be "just as good."

Literary Notes.

To PUBLISHERS.—All books, tracts, pamphlets, magazines, etc., intended for notice or review in this department must be addressed to the Editor of THE CANADIAN EVANGELIST, Hamilton, Ont.

That long established and sterling magazine, THE LIVING AGE, presents in its weekly numbers the best fiction, the ablest essays, the most interesting bits of biography, adventure and travel, in a word, the most readable and profitable contributions to foreign periodical literature.

Recent numbers contain, with much more equally good and interesting reading, "Mrs. Meynell's Two Books of Essays," by George Meredith; "Recent Science," by Prince Kropotkin "Excursion in the Atlas Mountains," by Walter B. Harris; "Sir Henry Parkes," by A. Patchett Martin; "Some Curious Duels," by J. Cuthbert Hadden; "Thomas Henry Huxley," by Wilfrid Ward; "On an Old American Turnpike," by A. G. Bradley; "Through Touraine on Wheels," by Sir Herbert Maxwell; "Hjaltland," by Colonel T. P. White; "Charilaos Trikoupes," by James D. Bourchier; "La Saisiaz in 1895," by A. Taylor Innes, and "Gustavus Adolphus," by Spencer Wilkinson. At least one short story, and selections of recent poetry appear in each weekly issue.

Information regarding "New Features" about to be introduced, with special offers to new subscribers, may be obtained by application to the publishers.

THE LIVING AGE, Co., Boston.

THE TREASURY OF RELIGIOUS THOUGHT for October, 1896, opens with an article on Ballington Booth and the volunteers, showing how the new organization differs from the Salvation Army, and presents its appeal to the sympathy and fellowship of other American Christians. The frontispiece is a portrait of the Rev. Jas. D. Rankin, D. D., of Denver, Col., whose sermon on a "Missionary Gospel," is one of the ablest and most brilliant that have appeared in THE TREASURY. Other sermons and outlines of sermons show examples of the good work of Dr. Gregg, Dr. Wilson, Dr. Lindsay Parker, President Stryker, Dr. J. Agar Beet and other distinguished preachers.

Annual subscription, $2.50. Clergymen, $2. Single copies, 25 cents.
