CHICAGO MARKET—April 20, 1899.

FROM OUR SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT.

CABLES DECIDEDLY STRONG—
MARKET RESPONDS BUT FEBBLY—
CORN AND PROVISIONS DULL.

Chicago, April 20.
Crop reports which come to hand continue to be of an unfavorable nature. In Kansas damage said to be very serious, the decrease in acreage to about 1,500,000 acres.

On the advance of the last few days, realizing has been considerable, and on information received of rain having fallen in Nebraska and Eastern Kansas, sentiment was inclined to change somewhat. The market continues to be nervous as conditions are conflicting.

Statistically there is little to cause anxiety for supplies in the near future. It is estimated that a crop smaller than that of a year ago by a hundred millions will meet all requirements. This has to be obtained from a seeded acreage considerably in excess of last year and the largest on record.

The market has had strong support on the breaks for several weeks, but the price is up ten cents a bushel, the highest since 1892 for the corresponding date excepting only the "Leiter" deal in 1898.
