GRATEFUL-COMFORTING. EPPS'S COCOA. BREAKFAST.

"By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected Cocons, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately flavoured beverage which may save us many heavy doctors' bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds of subtle maladies are floating around us ready to attack wherever there is a weak point. We may escape many a fatal shaft by keeping ourselves well fortified with pure blood and a properly nourished frame."—Civil Service Gazette. Made simply with boiling water or milk. THE Problem Solved.

THE problem which confronts the modern Sunday-school, recognizing that it cannot retain the interest of its scholars nor realize the highest possible usefulness unless provided with the largest library within its means, is, Where can we get the best selection of books at the lowest cost?

That problem has been very happily solved by hundreds of schools on writing us and securing our catalogues and terms. The visitor to the Book Room is amazed at seeing the vast range of shelves piled with the choicest literature that the great publishers have produced—books at all prices, suited to all grades of readers, and of such character and variety as to be at once healthful food to the mind and stimulus to the soul of the reader, young or old. As Agents of the Religious Tract Society, we carry a very complete stock of their publications—books every one of which we can warmly recommend.

Our terms are the most liberal. We give a large discount, and are prepared to send—at least to any school in Ontario—a double quantity of books for selection. This plan has given the highest satisfaction to schools.
