BEAUTIFUL EDEN!

W. H. DOANE.

"HAVING A DESIRE TO DEPART."—Phil. i. 23.

DUET.

The musical score for the Duet section consists of two staves of music. The top staff is for the treble clef voice, and the bottom staff is for the bass clef voice. The music is in common time (indicated by '9'). The lyrics are as follows:

1. Beau - ti - ful E - den ! refuge of peace, Home where the songs of the ransom'd ne'er cease;

Oh, how my spir - it, when sadden'd by gloom, Longs to be - hold thee, thou garden of bloom !

CHORUS.

The musical score for the Chorus section consists of two staves of music. The top staff is for the treble clef voice, and the bottom staff is for the bass clef voice. The music is in common time (indicated by '9'). The lyrics are as follows:

Beau - ti - ful E - den ! beau - ti - ful E - den ! Bright are thy flowers, golden thy fruits; Pure are thy riv - ers, thy fountains how free ! Beau - ti - ful E - den, my soul longs for thee !

2. Beautiful Eden ! sorrow or care

Never can wither thy blossoms so fair ;

Sin cannot blight them, and death cannot slay,

Safe in the garden of promise are they.—Chorus.

3. Beautiful Eden ! place of delight,

Land of the angels, celestial and bright ;

Here may the wayfarer stay and take rest,

Here in the heavenly home of the blest.—Chorus.

4. Beautiful Eden ! garden of grace,

Where we may gaze on the Saviour's dear face ;

There we shall gather in gladness above,

Roaming the realms of an Eden of love.—Chorus.
