Stock Exchange Notes.—The Stock Market has continued to advance without any important reactions, and with great activity.—Canadian Pacific shows large earnings in which, with reports of large business in carrying supplies, including cattle from the Western Ranches to the mining districts in British Columbia, have advanced the price 5 points. Cheaper loan money and very good harvest reports have helped the bull feeling. General trade is better and Woolen and Cotton industries are all doing well.—Cotton Stocks are in better demand at slightly higher prices.—Canada Paper Co. Bonds have sold in blocks at 105.—

Money is lending at 4½ % on mortgages of about $5,000, showing that the cheaping of investment money is general.—
