

NOTICE.

We thank the many friends who have noticed our request, "Look at your labels," and who have done more than looked—have sent their dollar or dollars, as the case may be. There are still, however, at least seventy-five per cent. of our subscribers who, if they have "looked" at their labels, have gone no further. Look again, and if the label does not say "Jan., '88," send dollars enough to make it do so—one dollar for each year. We are constantly receiving the most kindly notes of satisfaction and approval of THE INDEPENDENT. If these were gold coin, or even dollar bills, we are afraid that we should be extravagant enough to enlarge at once; but as good wishes are not bankable, we are only just able to pay our printer. Friends, please transmute your good wishes into dollar bills.

As the remittance list has to be made up about a week before publication, it may happen that your label may not be altered in the first issue after you send your subscription. If it is not in the second issue, then drop a card calling attention to it. We are anxious that the list should be perfectly correct.
