

Reference is made to the hotels and lodging accommodation in Montreal, and some useful hints to travellers are given in regard to securing berths, luggage, clothing, United States and Canadian money, etc. The excursions arranged for are described, and their attractions set forth in a way which must arouse the liveliest anticipation among those whose privilege it will be to take advantage of the low fare and enjoy the grand scenery of the St. Lawrence, the Saguenay, Lake St. John, or the grandeur of the Rockies. At the end is a note on the game laws, and a table indicating the open season for hunting the various kinds of game. The whole pamphlet is exceedingly well and tastefully gotten up, reflecting credit on the printers and engravers, and those whose good judgment is displayed in the appropriate selection of the text. The distribution of the programme at this early date throughout Britain will doubtless exert a favorable influence in the way of giving necessary information to those contemplating the trip, and may in some instances constrain the undecided to avail themselves of the treat that is in store for those who attend the 65th Annual Meeting. The Local Guide, which is in active preparation, will be on a more elaborate scale and form a volume of over 200 pages, and will be distributed at the Meeting.

Prof. Adami, who has been indefatigable in the preparations for the Meeting, left on the 22nd of May for England, and will be absent some six weeks. He has been delegated by the Executive Committee to visit the various Branches of the Association in England, Scotland, Dublin and Belfast, advising with them and giving all instructions required to facilitate arrangements for the journey, and at the same time endeavor to secure as large a contingent from across the Atlantic as possible. He will also confer with and assist the English Secretaries in regard to securing papers for the Meeting, and members to take part in the discussions. At the same time his presence in England will be of the greatest service to the General Secretary, Mr. Francis Fowke, and Dr. Saundby, the President of the Council, as he will be able to advise with them on all matters pertaining to the various details connected with the arrangements for the Meeting on this side. The President-Elect, Dr. T. G. Roddick, M.P.,
