

YOUR CHRISTMAS PROBLEM — FACES YOU — HERE'S AN EASY SOLUTION BUY BOOKS

They are not only reasonable in price—a mighty big factor this year—but, if you choose the right ones, are certain to be thoroughly acceptable. You cannot make a mistake in buying any of the following at your booksellers.

THE CALL OF THE EAST. $1.25
By Thurlow Fraser.

A refreshing, clean novel of love, war and heroism, with a touch of the devotional, by an athletic Canadian parson.

SELINA. $1.35

By George Madden Martin.

What's going to happen to your daughter when she leaves High School? Read about it in this charming novel.

THE CLARION. $1.35

By Samuel Hopkins Adams.

Patent medicine and newspapers, with a sprinkling of good romance. May be taken in large or small doses. A sure cure for ennui.

QUINNIES. $1.25

By H. A. Vachell.

An out-of-the-ordinary novel which is going like pancakes with maple syrup. Your friend will miss something good if he doesn't read it.

CLARK'S FIELD. $1.35

By Robert Herrick.

A strong story of unearned millions and what they didn't bring.

ARIADNE OF ALLAN WATER $1.25

By Sidney McCall.

One of the really sweet stories that maidens of to-day like so well.

HARRISON FISHER GIRLS. $2.75

Just the thing to give to a particularly charming young lady.

SPEAKIN' O' CHRISTMAS. $1.00

By Paul Laurence Dunbar.

Selections from this humorous author's clever writings.

THE GIRL WHO FOUND THE BLUEBIRD.

By Madame Maurice Maeterlinck. $1.00

Madame Maeterlinck, while in America, met Helen Keller, and seems to have incorporated her in this new and interesting novel.

A SHORT HISTORY OF THE CANADIAN PEOPLE. $2.00

By George Bryce, M.A., D.D.

This is a new, up-to-date history of Canada and includes chapters treating Canadian literature, art and music. A splendid gift for a student.

PROMOTION BALLADS. $1.00

By H. M. Nelson.

Characteristic verse, dealing largely with questionable mining and stock promotion, that is meeting with great favor.

IN THE HEART OF THE MEADOW. $1.00

By Thos. O'Hagan, Litt.D.

A small volume of serious and delicate verse by one who has already achieved considerable literary reputation in Canada and the United States.

PRAYER. .50

A dainty little thirty-page volume, issued in a de luxe format, the contents being an appeal for family worship. Includes carefully prepared forms of prayer for home use.

For Old and Present Torontonians

RECOLLECTIONS AND RECORDS OF TORONTO OF OLD

$2.00

By W. H. Pearson.

Illustrated with photographs and reproductions of old-time drawings and daguerrotypes of early buildings and citizens. The author is one of Toronto's oldest and most successful business men. Several of the illustrations have not hitherto been published.

Let Your Bookseller Solve Your Christmas Problems

William Briggs, Publisher
TORONTO, ONTARIO