

At a meeting of the habitues of the Stadacona club held last week it was mooted that a member of the Board of Trade now absent in England was to be expelled as he was not of aristocratic origin. God look on us. The motion being put to the vote it resulted in favour of the plebeian, 32 for him and 17 against what or how they got to have the blue blood we can't see, as they to our personal knowledge are the sons of butchers, tailors and milkmen with more money than brains. Aw Howddoo positively I didn't know you, cant do it. Star is watching you. Dont rub it in.

Star.

NOTICE.

We are informed that Jack O'Leary the man with no brains and Michael Fitzpatrick have leased the upper part of Mrs. Morrissey's castle St. Amiable street St. Lewis Tub, where they will open a dancing and singing class, on the second Monday after Easter, the man with no brains and Miss. M. will especially attend to the dancing, look out for some good songs C. Boughton says no matter what it may cost them to go ahead with it, and he will back them with any amount they may want, (generosity). Those two folks we are afraid will not be long in their new undertaking until they become Backrupt. However we hope to see the fine old mansion filled nightly with their friends especially those who want to become good singers,

L. S.

We understand that Isaac Simpson (alias red nose dutchy) is going to give up the dry goods business, and going to start a larger beer saloon down in the swamps. Mr. P. Carrier and P. Timmons have already bought him a long red satin vest and other articles.

Success Dutchy.

Jim Roach and Paul Charlton having entered into partnership has purchased all the deals belonging to the estate of Messrs Bennett and Co., from the assignee M. Walker, they are prepared to dispose of them in lots to suit purchasers for cash only, they have also leased the St. Lawrence docks and will be prepared in the spring to make advances on all timber staves and deals placed in their cove, as M. Charlton, has to leave for England and will be absent some time M. Roach will attend to all the town business any orders sent to cove can be addressed to their agent Isaac Bergeron.

Jim Roach,
P. Charlton.

To the Editor of the Quebec Star :

Dear Dodd,

Sir.—I seen a great commotion made some time ago, and a great deal of outside talk because that M. Edouard Roache had dared to aspire, or expect to become supervisor of cutlers, all that I have to say is, of course as long as M. Quinn is able to hold his office he has a perfect right to do so, so has Mr. Fraser, but what I wonder at is that the parties who went to Ottawa and done every thing they could to get the supervisor and the deputy shelved or pensioned off that there is not one word about them M. Roach never approached a member of Parliament, to ask him to had ten years to the supervisor time so that he would walk into the parlour and take his seat, however I believe that all the cutlers in the office would rather see the present supervisor W. Quinn Esq. and the deputy Alexander Fraser, than the men that has been to Ottawa looking for what they know very little about.

TO CONTRIBUTORS.

Write upon pages of a single size,
Cross all your T's, and neatly dot your P's;
On one side only let your lines be seen,
Both sides filled up announce a Verdant Green.

Correct, yes, re-correct all that you write
And let your ink be black and your paper white;

For spongy foolscap of a muddy blue
Betrays a mind of the same dismal hue.
Punctuate carefully, for on this score
Nothing proclaims the practised writer more.

Then sent it off, and, lest it merit lack,
Inclose the postage-stamps to send it back;
But first pay all the postage on it, too,
For editors look black on "six cents due,"
And unmured, as they run the effusion o'er,

"A shabby fellow and a wretched bore."
Yet ere it goes, take of a copy clean;
Poets should own a copying machine.
Little they know the time that's spent, and care,

In hunting verses vanished—who knows where?

Dear Star.

I would wish to inform you that I have just returned from my annual visit through all the number districts in Canada on the Ottawa there will be about 300,00 feet of white Pine this year, but I am sorry to say they wont be much oak nor elm down next year, I have had a good deal of conversation with Skead and Cruce and McKay also with my old friend McLaughlin of Arnprior, I also seen another old friend of mine Rody Ryan, these are all richmen you must know and unless that our merchants will give good prices next year they will all retire from the lumber business and build factories and distilleries round Ottawa valley.

Yours.

John McCormack.

The Prussian Budget or The Daily Cabbage Head gave us the best puff last week; give us another one every week, we dont care much for you, we are selling more Star in one day than your rags in one month, you better get up another Board of Trade for yourself and not be jealous of every body.
