FITZGERALD INVITED TO MONTREAL

New York, May 3 .- Interest in the six days' walking match in Madison Square Garden was intensified to day by the great effort being made by Bowell to overhaul Fitzgerald, the leader. Throughout the forenoon the plucky little Englishman developed wonderful speed and lessened hour by hour the gap that separated him from his Oslitic adversary and a small fortune. The close race between these padestrians attracted a greater crowd to the garden during the early morning hours and in fact throughout the forenoon than any other day of the great contest, and the excitement was at fever heat. Men, who on yesterday staked hundreds of dollars that Fitzgerald would win, turned pale as they watched the bulletin and saw the gains that were being made by the Englishmen, and noted the slow pace and woeful expression on the countenance of the ex-alderman. Many "hedged" and many hoped against hope, and followed the gaunt pedestrian around the fcourse, cheering him on and begging him to "let himself out." To all seldom lifting his eyes from the sawdust. He attempted many times to break into a run and follow Rowell, but the effort seemed to desperate, for he knew that

ROWELL HAD GAINED TWELTE MILES on him since 6 o'clock last night, but he apconfidence in their man, and these two were Tom Davis, his backer, and "Happy Jack" Smith, his trainer. They watched Fitzgerald | congratulatory telegrams. One of them, sent with the keenest interest and smiled a knowing smile in the face of the ominous predictions made on every side.

THE PIGHT POR THE LEAD.

Rowell went off at three minutes past one and stayed for twenty-three minutes. When he returned at twenty-six minutes past one Fitzgerald had increased his lead to just six miles. The Englishman, who had had a rum bath in his hut, came out looking fresher and not so red in the face. His gait was just about the same as it had been all the morning. He overtook Fitzgerald with a lap, and the ex-alderman took up his position at the second man's heels with the intention of contest, a few facts concerning him may be staying there. Vint at one spoke in an not amiss. A Posr reporter saw the mother offended manner to Fitzgerald about the way of the champion at her residence on Prince he said the ex-alderman had run on his heels | street. last night. "Why," replied Fitzgerald, couldn't you see I was loony last night and garden at this time, cheering almost unceasingly.

at half past-two O'clock were at sea. Many who had given up hope of Fitzgersld winning were then inclined to think that after all he might possibly wear the Englishman out. Others openly pronounced the race a fraud, "Duryea and his crowd," said one, "are the only men who know who's the winner. They've enginereed to-night's fittle game and will make barrels of money.

FIT MADE HIS 600 MILES at 5 hours 2 minutes and 10 seconds. He was greeted with the greatest enthusiasm. He was then four miles three laps ahead of Bowell. He took the uproar raised on his account very cooly. He finished his 601st mile before retiring. He had only been out of sight six minutes when Rowell pushed on the track. Fitzgerald heard of this, jumped up and immediately went after the Englishman. This caused another outburst of cheers. When Hezzel made the previous record of 600 miles in six days, he completed his task at 9.30 in the evening; Fitz thus BEAT THE RECORD.

for that distance by over four hours. It was said that during the early hours of the morning kitz accused his backer, Tom Davis, of poisoning him, but little attention was paid to this, knowing it came from a painfully exerted man. During the evening Fitz was presented with a silver gobiet lined with gold. He carried this to show to Rowell, but the latter paid but little attention to the gift. Rowell completed his 600th mile at 6:53, beating Hazzel's record by two hours, 16 minutes and 35 seconds. Peter Duryes,

BOWELL'S BACKER, GAVE UP

the contest at 7 c'clock. He attributed Bowell's defeat, he said, to a badly sprained left ankle from which his man had been suffering for two days and wanted to make snother match with Fitzgerald. He will let Fitzgerald name the time, the amount to be over $5,000 a side. Two large floral emblems were presented to Fitzgerald during the evening. They were borne in front of him around the track, Flizgerald following and bearing the flag of Erin.

THE CLOSING SCENE.

During the evening the garden was packed. Fitz remained on the track walking slowly around, and was cheered almost incessantly. Panchet did some lively running. Rowell retired at 7.11, and afterward came out. He was loudly applauded. His ankle was swollen to nearly double its size, and was black and blue. He appeared again on the track but did not limp perceptibly. Noremac and Fliz joined him and they the scorer's stand, and shook hands. Three cheers were then given for Fits and three equally hearty for Rowell. The pedestrians then went to their huts, and at 8.45 the contest was ended.

DIVISION OF THE BECKIPTS.

The estimate is that there will be about $25,000 divided among the seven contestants. cent, the sixth man 4 per cent, and the seventh man 3 per cent. This would give Fitzgerald about $14,000, Rowell about $5,000, Panchot $2,750, Noremac $1,750, Herty $1,250, Vint $1,000 and Eison $750. FITZGERALD HONORED.

The news of Fitzgerald's victory having reached Long Island City, that collection of factories, cemeteries and vacant lots came over to the garden in a body. They declared that no honor would be too great for the alderman if he should win the race. Mayor Petrie is reported to have declared he would appoint him a Police Commissioner, and the other commissioners said they would elect him president of the board. Next, Mohawk their cheers and pleadings the leader was Hose Company offered to escort him home on mute, and plodded wearily and heavily, but their truck, and give him a reception afterwards. A party of young ladies came to ask permission to visit his quarters. They were shown a collection of pans, crockery and botweary him and he fell into his old clogging | tles, the big bath tub and the truckle bed gait. He realized that his chances were with which the alderman is kept going, and they expressed great wonderment at what they saw. A delegation of citizens presented him with what they thought he needed most parently could not increase his pace. He came with the family to Montreal went off at fifty-eight minutes past one and in 1857 and was sent to the Friara' school, returned at eight minutes past two, when but soon showed a greater love for play than Rowell had decreased the six mile lead by study. He early developed an intense love seven laps. Fitzgerald at once began a trot for athletics, and was noted for his fisetness and hung to Rowell's heels. Two partizans of foot and capability to stand fatigue. of Rowell and Fitzgerald respectively had a when still young he attracted the small sized fight, but were hustled out of the building before either damaged the other a likely runner, and when he got on seriously. There were 4,000 people in the a match with a runner named Matthemore, he found no difficulty in getting himself back. ed for a half mile dash. His opponent got sick before the race, and another man named Moffatt considered Paddy so little of a runner that he took Matthemore's place. Young Fitzgerald had things so much his own way that he rose very rapidly in the estimation of his admirers. He now began to do five and ten miles in good time, and leit Montreal when he was in his twenty-first year to seek fresh fields and pastures new, having no more competitors here, all fighting shy of him. Up to this time he had never been beaten in a match race and the runners were very much aireid of him. He went out West on leaving Montreal and met several first-rate men with varying success. He had always been a strong healthy boy, and at this time was 5 feet 10} inches in height and weighed about 170 pounds in condition. He got on some profitable races and made a reputation, which he has never lost, for square running. The first big six days' go-as-you-please found him amongst the entries and he made a capital race, finishing second in a field where, as in the present instance, the best men in the world were competitors. In his next essay in this class of racing he had so far improved Rifles; Private S. Bailey, Sergeant-Inspector in style and had gained so much experience that he landed himself an easy winner. His next attempt left him a second place, and his last two efforts as a six days' pedestrian have stamped him, as the winner, a pedestrian the superior of anything in the world. He had several notable short races on besides these big engagements, one being his trial with Johnny Raine, of Ottawa, by whom he was only just beaten in a mile race. Raine being the best mile man in the world, bar Cummings, this was considered a good performance. He then ran a race against time, and put in eleven miles inside of an hour. His career as a pedestrian has been without discredit, and he is well cited by every member of the fraternity. Just after the conclusion of the last race, his admirers and friends in his place of residence, in Long Island City, offered him a seat in the municipal council, an honor which he accepted, and in the enjoyment of which he still remains. said he; "he showed speed and endurance when he was a very young lad, and as he always took the best of care of himself there was no fear of his getting there every time he tried. He could stand more than most resting of the seven men who finished the race is as follows:

Time on Time off distance men, I knew that all he wanted to be a first-class pedestrian was to have experience in handling himself. He is a man who would always take advice if he thought it was good, and so he always found men willing to do what they could for him..... I have known him and his family since he was a little fellow just able to walk about, and I never knew him to do a mean thing. If the papers speak the truth about his condition at the end of the race, I am very much surprised, as his father received a telegram on Saturday night at eleven o'clock from Paddy to the effect that he was in the best of health and spirits, the winner getting 50 per cent of all receipts and could have done many more miles than and the stake of $1,500, the second man 20 he did had he been allowed by his trainers. per cent, the third man 11 per cent, the Appearances are nothing to go by in a big fourth man 7 per cent, the fifth man 5 per race, and when a man looks worn out it is no reason that he is so. A number of despatches were sent from here last night to him congratulating him on his success."

The general feeling in town is one of rejoicing that a Canadian has shown the world how to walk as they have how to row. The race was the subject of general conversation in every place this morning and in no case was the running of Fitzgerald a matter for regret.

WEEKLY BEVIEW - WHOLESALE MARKETS.

General quietude has again been apparent this week in the wholesale branches of trade. We have to note the arrivel from sea of the first steamers of the spring fleet and though the shipping trade is not in a very promising condition just now yet a certain measure of increased activity will be imparted to business by the opening of navigation. The present manipulation of prices of grain and provisions at Ohicago is adverse to a large export movement of Western produce to Europe and freight rates both inland and at the sea board favor New York at the expense of Montreal. From travellers we hear favorable reports as to the winter crop and spring seeding. With improved roads, remittances are coming in a little better. In consequence of the determination of the mills to rigidly adhere to the curtailment of production as agreed upon, the advance in the price of white cotton is firmly maintained, and as there is no probability for better terms for buyers, they will no doubt soon be compelled to enter the market, as it is generally admitted that stocks in the hands of retailors throughout the country are small. A few travellers are already out with fail samples of heavy fall and winter coatings, blankets, flannels and knitted goods.

IRON AND HARDWARE. -The sale is reported of a lot of Summerles delivered at Poterboro, Ont., at $20 12, which shows, it is said, a slight out. Besides the sales of No 1 Siemens mentioned by us last week several good sized parcels have been placed for delivery at country points at about equal to our quotations here, but at present business is flat. The feeling in the English market is far from encouraging. Scotch warrants are cabled steady at 42s 5d. Prices here are as follows:
—Biemens, No 1, $18 75 to 10 00; No 1 Coltness and Langloan, $20; No 1 Gartsherrie, Summerlee and Calder at $1875; No Dalmellington, $18, and No 1 Egiinton, $17 25 to 17 50. The leading feature of the week in the metal market has been the rapid advance in tin and copper, prices now being £85 153 and £64 respectively net cash in London. A corresponding firmness and advance has occurred here, tin being up to 20½0 for 15½0. Stocks were rather light which induced Straits and 21½0 for L & F. A fair business some holders to ask slightly better rates transpires in tin plates, which are quoted at $4 75 to 4 85 for I O charcoal and at $4 25 to $4 40 for I C coke. Canada plates are steady at $2 95 to 3 00 for Penn & Blaina. Bars remain about as last quoted at $1 80 to 1 85, sheets at 210 to 210, plates at 21c to 210 and lead at $340 to 350. In general hardware there has been a fair movement in shelf goods, and the heavier ware is expected soon to show an expanded business. Freights on iron from Glasgow are quoted at 7s 6d to 8s. GROCERIES.—There has been heavy trading of bright extra bringing 645. A lot of 625 barrels of West Farnham sugar was also placed to day at a pretty fair price. Paris lumps in boxes have sold at 8% to 8%c. Sy- lb 13%c to 14%c; lard, Western, in palls, per rups are a little more enquired for, but prices lb 126 to 12%c; lard, Canadian, in palls 11%c; are considerably lower, ranging all the way bacon per lb 13c to 14c; tallow, common from 321 to 550 per imperial gallon. Molasses | refined, per lb 610 to 740. served, and she was subsequently found sus-pended to the limb of a tree in a wood about at 37½; for new crop, Porto Rico 32½c, English Islands 30c, and Sugar House at 25c. There a mile from Cromerty.

The Skyr Croffess.—The croiters in the are indications that sugars have touched bot. Kilmuir district of Skye have appointed a tom prices and that a firmer tone may be expected, owing to heavy orders in jobbers' hands, which will have to be filled as soon as navigation is fairly opened. The fruit market possesses no particular animation. Valencia raising have improved so mewhat in price, in sympathy with the advance in England. Some off-lots have been sold here at a shade under 5c, but choice brands are quoted at 5 to 510. There is scarcely anything reported in Malaga fruit. Ourrants are quiet at 420 to 520 as to quality. Prunes are easy at 420 to 50, with business at that range. The 88 Avions, from Marseilles and Charante, is now unloading a cargo of Mediterranean fruit at Halliax, and the Barcelons, from other Mediterranean perts, is now due with a large pargo of green fruit, which has stopped orders from Liverpool. Some dealers estimate her cargo of lemons and oranges at 10,000 packages, but this is not believed by other well posted houses. Figs in 1 lb boxes are very scarce at 17c to 18c and 2 lb boxes are not to be had in first hands. Boxes of 56 lbs are quoted at 61c to 61c, stock limited. There are no mats to speak of, jobbers having just enough to supply country orders. The tea market is quiet, although sales are reported of fine Young Hysons and Japans at pretty fair prices. Coffee shows very little change, and in spices the sale of 25 bags of black pepper is reported at 16%c. In other kinds there are no important changes mentioned. Rice is very firm, and the sale of 500 bags is mentiosed on private terms. Mill prices are quoted at $3.50 to $3 60. The first cargo of raw rice is expected by the middle of May, direct from Burmah. Stocks are very low both here and in the west.

BOOTS AND SHOES-LEATHER-In the boot and shoe trade there is little to report except that jobbing houses have done a lively enough trade for the season. A few travellers have started with full samples for the Lower Provinces and the Northwest, which is considered fully a month too early. Manufacturers report a fair business of a sorting up nature, and one of our houses is still turning out goods on English orders. There have been four or five failures in boots and shoes and leather at Quebec arising out of the Cassils Stimson failure. Business in both sole and black leather is very small, but as stocks show no great accumulation prices are maintained as follows. Spanish sole, No. 1, B A, 26c to 27c; do No. 2, B A, 23c to 24c; Ohina, No. 1, 22c to 24c; do No. 2, 18c to 19c; There is travel. Wheat, spring, $180 to 2; do Deihl per 100 lbs and travel.
