Mercantile Summary.

A Cornwall paper asserts that it is contemplated to erect a large cotton mill at that place, having a capacity of ten thousand spindles.

IT IS RUMORED that a change in the personnel of the dry goods firm of Kerr, Brown & McKenzie, Hamilton, will shortly be announced.

A HOUSE in Toronto, which has been doing a large leather trade, has become involved, and has suspended payment. The immediate cause is stated to be large losses by unsuccessful speculations, in which one member of the firm was engaged, coupled with other recent losses in their legitimate business. It had been surmised that they were in a critical condition for some time past, notwithstanding representations to the contrary effect, so that the suspension was not altogether unlooked for.

ALD. MOULDS, builder, of this city, has made an assignment for the benefit of his creditors. It may be remembered that very recently this gentleman was served with a notice of insolvency by one of his principal creditors, on which occasion relief was granted him on application to the judge. His failure has naturally taken his creditors by surprise, who are at a loss to understand how the surplus his estate then showed has disappeared.
