

Come! Let us Celebrate the Day.

To be sung cheerfully.

TREBLE.
ALTO.

1. Come, let us cel - e - brate the day, Let love our hearts in - spire, . . . To us a Sa - viour
2. In end - less woe we must have laid, Had not, with pity - ing care, . . . God's on - ly Son vouch -

TENOR.
BASS.

has been born,— Fill, fill with ho - ly fire. . . . Let earth re - sound, Re - joice a - round, Re
- - saved to come, To re - scue from de - spair. . . . From our great fall He ran - som'd all, He calando. . . . ff tempo. p

- joice a - - - round. . . } Chris - tians, re - joice! Raise your glad voice,— Christ was born in ran - som'd all . . . }

ff p rall. . . .

Beth - le - hem— Chris - tians, re - joice! Raise your glad voice,— Christ was born in Beth - le - hem.

Let us Sing the Praise of Him.

With spirit.

SOPRANO.
ALTO.

1. Let us sing the praise of Him, Oh! let our tongues not fal - ter, He was born to be our King, Whose

TENOR.
BASS.

glo - ry ne'er can al - ter; All praise be giv'n, On earth or Heav'n, Al - le - lu - ia! A - - men.

In a manger lowly laid,
And where shepherds found Him,
Every homage be Him paid,
By those who kneel before Him.
Raise every voice,
Let earth rejoice,
Alleluia! Amen.

Born to-day, sing loud the lay
From hearts that cannot vary,
Christ is born for us this day,
Born of the Virgin Mary.
Redeemer, King,
Thy praise we sing,
Alleluia! Amen.