

Article XXIV
Termination of the Agreement of 7 May 1981
and Recalculation of Benefits

1. With the entry into force of this Agreement, the Agreement with respect to Social Security between Canada and the Hellenic Republic, signed at Athens on 7 May 1981, shall be terminated.

  - (a) A benefit awarded through the application of the Agreement referred to in paragraph 1 shall be recalculated by the competent institution, on request by the beneficiary or at the initiative of the competent institution, taking into account the provisions of this Agreement.

  - (b) If a request for recalculation is submitted to a competent institution within 24 months of the date of entry into force of this Agreement, the recalculation shall have effect from that date, without the provisions of the legislation of a Party regarding the expiration or prescription of entitlement being applied to the individual.

  - (c) If a request for recalculation is submitted to a competent institution later than 24 months from the date of entry into force of this Agreement, the recalculation shall have effect from the date of submission of the request in respect of rights that are neither expired nor prescribed.

  - (d) In no case shall the amount of a benefit be reduced as a result of such recalculation.
