

ARTICLE IV

Fair and Equitable Treatment

Subject to its laws, regulations and policies, each Party shall accord fair and equitable treatment to the individuals, corporations, government agencies and other entities of the other Party engaged in the pursuit of activities under this Agreement.

ARTICLE V

Dispute Settlement

The Parties shall endeavour, in good faith, to amicably resolve any dispute between them arising from the interpretation or implementation of this Agreement, through consultations.

ARTICLE VI

Final Provisions

1. This Agreement shall enter into force on the date of the last diplomatic note by which one Party informs the other of the completion of its internal procedures, and the provisions of this Agreement shall have effect from 1st April 2011.
2. Either Party may terminate this Agreement at any time with six months' advance notification in writing to the other Party, through diplomatic channels.
3. This Agreement shall remain in force for a period of five years, unless denounced by either Party, and it shall be automatically renewable for periods of five years. A Party that does not wish to renew this Agreement shall notify the other Party by giving six months' written notification, through diplomatic channels.
4. This Agreement may be amended, in writing, by agreement of the Parties. Any such amendment shall enter into force on the date of the last diplomatic note by which one Party informs the other of the completion of its internal procedures.
5. The amendment or termination of this Agreement shall not affect the validity of arrangements and contracts already concluded under the Previous Agreement and under this Agreement.
