

MINUTE ORDER OF REFERENCE

HOUSE OF COMMONS,
TUESDAY, March 14, 1967.

Ordered—That the name of Mr. Reid be substituted for that of Mr. Legault on the Standing Committee on National Defence.

Attest.

LÉON-J. RAYMOND,
The Clerk of the House of Commons.

In attendance: From the Department of National Defence: Honorable Paul Hellyer, Minister; Brigadier W. J. Lawson, Judge Advocate General; Colonel W. M. W. Shaw, Group Captain R. A. McLean, Judge Advocate General's Branch; Captain (R) A. G. Solomon, Director of Personnel Legal Service, Canadian Forces Headquarters.

The Chairman read the Thirteenth Report of the Subcommittee on Agenda and Procedure, as follows:

SUBCOMMITTEE ON AGENDA AND PROCEDURE

Monday, March 13, 1967

THIRTEENTH REPORT

The Subcommittee on Agenda and Procedure of the Standing Committee on National Defence met at 9:45 p.m. this day. The Chairman, Mr. Deschamps, presided.

Members present: Messrs. Andrus, Deschamps, Harkness, Lambert McNulty and Mr. Winch (6).

Your Subcommittee met to consider the order of business for sittings of the Committee on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of this week. The Subcommittee recommends as follows:

1. That the Committee continue to stand the motion of Mr. Andrus, dated Thursday, March 9, 1967.
2. That the Committee should hear from the Judge Advocate General on the legal implications of Bill C-244, at the morning and afternoon sittings on Tuesday.
3. That the Committee may wish to hear from the Director General of Maritime Forces later on Tuesday, if required, and after consultation with the Committee as a whole.
4. That the Committee should invite Air Marshal Curtis to appear on Wednesday afternoon.
