

—presenting a budget that increases taxes on individual Canadians for the third year in a row, totalling billions and billions of dollars;
 —widening the gap between the rich and the poor by their ill-advised and heartless fiscal policy;
 —cutting the crucial Regional Economic Development budget, for the third year in a row; and —once again delaying the long promised essential tax reform programme thereby postponing any attempt to create more fairness in our tax system which is being eroded under the present conservative administration.”

Mr. Deputy Speaker: All those in favour of the amendment will please say yea.

Some Hon. Members: Yea.

Mr. Deputy Speaker: All those opposed will please say nay.

Some Hon. Members: Nay.

Mr. Deputy Speaker: In my opinion the nays have it.

And more than five Members having risen:

Mr. Deputy Speaker: Call in the Members.

The House divided on the amendment (Mr. Garneau), which was negated on the following division:
