

October Twentieth 1921.

President Kenneth M. Sills,
Bowdoin College,
Brunswick, Me.

Dear President Sills,-

I thank you for your kindness in writing as you did on October 18th.

It was a great week for McGill and I feel that much good will result from it.
I am very glad that you were able to come and that I had an opportunity of meeting you in a more personal way than was my privilege with many of our guests.

I hope that some time in the future I may have an opportunity of visiting Bowdoin College.

Most cordially reciprocating your good wishes, I am,

Ever yours faithfully,

Principal.
