

their humble neighbours, by making use of the powers and resources which Providence hath granted them, in rendering to the poor man his own fatherland a happy and abundant home.

The pleasure and satisfaction I feel in paying a tribute of respect to one, foremost in such a laudable pursuit, are greatly enhanced by the knowledge, that I now bear along with me the hearts of many whose grateful feelings any language of mine would coldly express.

I have the honour to be,
With the highest respect,
MADAM,
Your most obedient,
And humble servant,

D. WILKIE.
