

	PAGE.
XIII.—FIXTURES AND EMBLEMENTS—(Continued.)
Tenant by sufferance	124
Cases	124
XIV.—HOW A TENANCY MAY BE DETERMINED AND CONSEQUENCES OF HOLDING OVER.
Premises held for a term certain	127
Disclaimer	127
Surrender	127
Notice to quit	128
Tenant holding over	129
Agent giving notice to quit	129
Requisites for notice	130
Service of notice	130
When to be given	130
When commencement of term doubtful	131
Tenant bound by his replies	131
Acceptance of rent	132
Distraining for rent	132
Second notice to quit	132
Retention of possession	132
Tenant at will or tenant by sufferance	132
Peaceable delivery required	132
Double value	133
Notice to quit required	133
Double rent	133
How recoverable	134
Cases	134
XV.—TENANT'S REMEDY FOR WRONGFUL OR IRREGULAR DISTRESS.
Irregular distress	136
Landlord's responsibility for acts of bailiff	137
Excessive distress	137
Illegal distress	138
Replevin	138
Procedure, affidavit, order	139
Bond, costs	139
Judgment	140
Cases	140
XVI.—THE RECOVERY OF TENEMENTS.
Overholding Tenants' Act	141
Action for possession of land	143
Recovery of premises by landlord where lease is determined and tenant refuses to quit	143
Tenant receiving writ must notify landlord	144
Recovery of deserted premises	144
Cases	146
XVII.—SOME MISCELLANEOUS STATUTORY DIRECTIONS.
Snow Fences Act	148
Ditches and Watercourses Act	149
Line Fences	149
Public Health Act	149
Night Watchmen	150
R. S. O. c. 342	151
R. S. O. c. 330, secs. 21-30	164
FORMS—See List	167