EXPORT DEMAND STIFFENS PRICES

Early Downward Tendency Soon Checked—Rally in Corn Also.

CHICAGO, Feb. 20.—Revival of export demand in the west for shipments by way of the gulf gave the wheat market today an upward slant. The close was nervous at a shade to 1-4c to 3-8c over last night. Corn made a net gain of 1-8c to 1-4c and oats of a shade to 1-4c. In provisions the outcome was varied from 5c to 11-2c decline to a rise of 2-2c.

Owing to rain or snow extending from Oklahoma to South Dakota, inclusive, wheat at first took a downward turn. The market was bearishly affected also by predictions that world shipments for the week would be large. For the time being, notwithstanding reports of decreased arrivals formed, the only offset in favor of bulls.

News that foreigners were buying wheat in Omaha to be routed via New Orleans effected a complete change in pit sentiment. The result was to add quickly 3-4c to prices here, and this, too, notwithstanding that a cold wave was putting an end to the deposit of moisture in portions of the winter crop belt.

Come up in sympathy. Corn found friends when wheat began to ascend. Besides, there were complaints that rural hauling was handicapped by the softness of roads, and the weather was unfavorable for marketing, the less so than for corn.

Provisions responded late in the session to the strength shown by grain. Earlier the bears were in control because of the liberal run of hogs here and at other leadings points.
