Toronto Horses for Madison Garden Show

Mr. Davies Receives More Cups—Important Sales—Horse Notes.

Mr. Robt. Davies recently received three more Connaught Cups, now having four in all of these beautiful gold cups for this race, won by his two horses, Calgary and Plata Glass, here and in Montreal. Major Joseph Kilgour's horses are leaving on Thursday for New York, where they will compete at the National Horse Show, Madison Square Garden, beginning Saturday, Nov. 6. Miss Coulthard, Gordon Myles and Mr. George Elliot will ride Major Kilgour's horses in the events for amateur riders.

Mr. T. A. Crow of Toronto is also showing his well-known horses there, too. Lady Beck (saddle horse), Mr. Bob Graham (ponies) and Mr. J. J. Dixon (harness horses) are three Canadians judging at New York, where over $50,000 will be offered in prizes.

The sale of the famous Elmendorf stud, property of the estate of the late James B. Haggin, Lexington, Ky., takes place on the farm there Thursday, Oct. 28, when seventy brood mares and thirty yearlings will be sold; also the famous horse, Ballou, formerly owned by Mr. Madden, who may probably be repurchased. It is probable that Ballou will bring something in the neighborhood of $50,000. Mr. Robert Davies will probably be a Canadian purchaser at this sale.

Dode Burkart was out with T.R. & A.A. last night, and the rest of the team reported in good shape after Saturday's strenuous battle.

HOCKEY WAR GETS UNDER WAY. PATRICKS FIRE FIRST GUN.

The Patricks have carried out their threat. The hockey war between the Coast League and the N.H.A. is on. Frank Patrick wired Harry Holmes, the Toronto net guardian, yesterday, to name his terms to play at the coast this winter, and also stated that several other eastern stars will be approached. Few, if any, of the eastern players have signed contracts to date, and the war will have a tendency to increase the salaries in the east. Holmes is undecided yet where he will play.

Quebec Amateur Athletic Officers

MONTREAL, Oct. 25.—At the annual meeting of the Quebec branch of the A.A.U. of Canada, held in the M.A.A.A. clubhouse, the recommendations of the board of governors that alterations be made in the boxing rules, principally that the length of the rounds be reduced from four minutes to three minutes, and that an official handtapper for the branch be appointed, were the principal items of interest discussed.

Reports were heard from the boxing championship committee, permanent olympia committee, registration committee, and board of governors, all of which were satisfactory.

Two new clubs were granted affiliation with the branch—the Levelette Club of Three Rivers and the Paquette Association of St. Bonaventure.

The following clubs were represented: P. J
