a larger meeting-room. They are now headquartered on the top floor of St.
George's Hall, the opening of which room was celebrated by a social fete last evening. A short dedicatory address was given by the secretary, C. F.
Moorehouse.

Ior statements made in that paper, in which Mr. Dryden explained the success of Ontario methods and thought they would help Ireland. Altho ad mitting he had little information regarding Ireland, except from reading Plunkett's book. he suggested the farmers there lacked enthusiasm.

Oliver and Church left for Ottaw last night, to be present with Ho Colin Campbell's telephone deputatio to-day. Ald. Oliver will also represent the board of trade. The big deputation will include representatives from the provincial gov ernments of Manitoba, Ontario and Quebec, and also from some of the nunicipalities, and will ask for such legislation as will restore to the mu-nicipalities the right to control their thorofares and also to be able to expropriate local telephone systems within their districts. Manitoba wants to have provincial control of telephones, and therefore desires to see that no legislation wili be passed at Ottawa 10 prevent this. Bell Company do not get the increase in its capital stock that it is asking for. The company wants an incre in its capital stock from 10 to 15 I lions. The deputation also wants bill to amend the Railway Act, in bringing telephones under the control of the railway commission, to go fur-ther and prevent the companies inther and prevent the companies in-terfering with the municipal highway and also deal with franchises of tele phone companies.
