

HOME-MADE MEDICINE.

Said to Relieve Kidney Trouble and Rheumatism.
One ounce Fluid Extract Dandelion;
One ounce Compound Sassafras;
Four ounces Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla;
Mixed and taken in teaspoonful doses after meals and at bedtime, is stated by a prominent physician to give most excellent results in kidney or urinary affections, and also in rheumatism and sciatica. The mixture opens the clogged pores of the kidneys, thus assisting them in their work of filtering all waste and poisonous matter from the blood, and expels these in the urine. To allow this poisonous matter to remain means that it will settle in the muscular tissue or joints, and cause the untold misery known as rheumatism.

The mixture is composed of harmless vegetable ingredients which can be purchased at any good drug store, and mixed at home.

Anyone suffering from any of these afflictions will no doubt be pleased to learn of so simple and highly recommended a remedy.

ONTARIO GOVERNMENT WILL NOT PAY FOR WATER

Service Shut Off at Ottawa and Province is Making an Appeal.

OTTAWA, Sept. 23.—(Special.)—The Ontario Government has made a protest against paying the regular water rates here. The auditor for the Ontario Government educational department is in the city to-day, and will consult with the chairman of the waterworks committee.

The matter came to a head when the city solicitor shut off the water ten days ago, because the rates for this year had not been paid. On the understanding that there would be some arrangement made right away, and in view of the hardships which would be caused in the school by lack of water, the collector and city engineer agreed to have the water turned on almost immediately.

One claim made by the government is that it should be exempt from water rates on government property. The city's reply to this was that only Dominion Government property is exempt, and that by a special agreement with the city.

FIVE HUNDRED PAID TAX.

Fifty Thousand Dollars From Arriving Chinese.

OTTAWA, Sept. 23.—A telegram has been received from Vancouver by the department of trade and commerce, stating that the Empress of India has landed 500 Chinese at that port.

Of these 100 paid the poll-tax of $500 each, and 100 were Chinese returning to Canada, these being exempt from the tax.

The remaining 300 are en route to the United States or other countries.

A FOGGY BRAIN

Is usually the direct result of a clogged liver, and accompanying this is a disordered digestion, unstrung nerves and general lassitude. Eliminate the waste products of the body and enable the liver and kidneys to perform their proper functions and the entire system will resume its normal condition. King's Compound is the most perfect kidney and liver tonic, nerve-builder and blood purifier ever prepared, and you are not asked to take it on faith. Its formula is a secret, but is published plainly on the wrapper. If in doubt show it to your doctor. One dose a day is all that is required, and the first dose will give you proof of its virtues; sick-headache, biliousness and general nervous breakdown respond immediately to its curative properties. Rheumatism and a host of disorders resulting from impure blood are relieved and eventually cured by its use. Nervegia and all nervous disorders quickly disappear when their cause is removed. King's Compound is not an experiment, but a scientifically demonstrated success. Give it a trial. Write for a free sample bottle to the King's Compound Company, Bridgeport, Ont. Sold and guaranteed by Burgess & Powell Company, 78 Yonge-street, Toronto.

MURDER TRIAL AT WHITBY.

Adam Ludwig Charged With Shooting Off the Top of His Wife's Head.

WHITBY, Sept. 23.—(Special.)—The autumn assizes opened before Justice MacMahon with a murder trial, and the further investigation of the C.P.R. collision at Myrtle last March, when two employees were killed.

The courtroom was crowded and the gallery filled with ladies.

Adam Ludwig, a Brock Township farmer, is to be tried for shooting the top of his wife's head off with a shotgun on July 20 last. From evidence recapitulated by the court in presenting the case to the grand jury, the man must have been insane.

In the Myrtle railway case, James P. Cook, conductor of the train, whose failure to cross freight special 1488 at Myrtle caused the catastrophe, is charged with manslaughter. Kyle, the engine-driver, and the train despatcher, who failed to repeat the order to the operator at Myrtle, are also likely to be indicted.

Synopsis of Scenes.

Act I.—The courtyard of the Imperial Palace of Elysia. The happiness of Happyland is such that King Ecstasius bemoans it much.

Act II.—In the Elysian fields. Love surely plays such funny tricks, that earnest knows what maid to woo.

"Happyland," offered at the Royal Alexandra last night, will undoubtedly become as popular in Toronto as it is in the crowded house that welcomed it to be accepted as a criticism. Certainly it is a particularly bright and lively production, admirably adapted as a medium for the special humor of Mr. De Wolf Hopper, whose personality pervades the production. But the book, too, written for a purpose, betrays none of the artificiality which commonly results from endeavors of this kind. The story, comical by its very nature, is cleverly constructed out of a few well-known, even hackneyed expedients, but treated with a degree of freshness and originality that conceals their antiquated flavor.

Mr. Hopper's role is that of Ecstasius, King of Elysia, a land of unbroken happiness, and for that reason sufficiently tedious to the flighty monarch. Much of the amusement of the opera turns in the endeavors of the king and his brother sovereign of Altruria to carry out a compact made eighteen years before, to wed the Prince of Elysia with the Princess of Altruria, an impossible bargain, since Ecstasius has only a daughter and Altruria is childless. Both resort to subterfuges of every kind, but the difficulty is solved by the advent of Fortunatus, Crown Prince of Fortunia, who wins the Elysian Princess while the unfortunate Ecstasius saddles himself with the anything but lovely lady that Altimus has passed off as his daughter.

This story is told by Frederic Rankin with plenty of spirit and much cunning dialog to the accompaniment of a number of excellent songs and attractive choruses. Reginald De Koven, who provides the music, has the knack of writing catchy melodies, and his orchestration is tuneful and appropriate. "Happyland" has the advantage of a superior company, who play with ample go and finish. Mr. Hopper himself is inimitable in his part, and was well supported by Edmund Lawrence as Sphinxus, a professional keeper of state secrets, and by William Wolff as Altimus. The duet between Ecstasius and Altimus, "How I Love Flowers," made a great and deserved hit with the audience. Joseph Phillips as Fortunatus sang excellently. Then Marguerite Clark, in the leading role of Sylvia, is an actress and vocalist of exceptional sprightliness and talent, and at once established herself in favor. The other parts were all in good hands. The opera is gaily and richly staged and it is safe to say will be heartily enjoyed by its patrons. The very large audience last night were enthusiastic in their plaudits, and to their great delight, Mr. Hopper responded in one of his impromptu and humorous harangues that are as much-provoking as ever. "Happyland" will be played during the week.
