From the Boston Mercantile Library Reporter, for March, 1855, published by the Mercantile Library Association, and conducted by its Officers.

"If Worcester is the standard authority in Boston, it is a singular fact that while the best editions of both these Dictionaries are in the Mercantile Library, both side by side upon the catalogue, and both accessible to our members, Worcester has not been called for once, that the librarian or his assistants can recollect, for the past three years. This copy was placed in the library in May, 1848; it has still on its edges the original polish of the binder's knife, and were it not for the official stamps of the Association, it would pass for a new copy in any book-store. Webster's Unabridged, which has been in the library since October, 1849, is in constant use, it being no unusual circumstance for it to be inquired after twenty times a day. We invite those who believe that Worcester is the standard authority in Boston, to a personal examination of the two copies in this library, and the other facts we have stated. The condition, also, of the copies of the two Dictionaries in the Boston Athenæum indicates the same fact, though not in so marked a manner, that, whichever is the standard authority in Boston, Webster is the one that is used."

In the United States he is the authority everywhere, except in Boston; and even there, more than any other one.—Professor Stowe.

FACTS.

FACT 1. More than ten times as many are sold of Webster's Dictionaries, than of any other series in the country.

FACT 2. At least four fifths of all the School Books published in this country own Webster as their standard, and of the remainder few acknowledge any standard.

FACT 3. Nearly every State Superintendent of Public Instruction in the Union, or corresponding officer, where such a one exists, has recommended WEBSTER'S DICTIONARY in the strongest terms. Among these are those of Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Rhode Island, Connecticut, New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Kentucky, Indiana, Illinois, Missouri, Michigan, Iowa, Wisconsin, Minnesota, and Canada, eighteen in all.

FACT 4. There is a unanimity of opinion that Dr. Webster's is the best Defining Dictionary in the English Language.—Horace Mann.

FACT 5. It is constantly cited and relied on in our Courts of Justice, in our legislative bodies, and in public discussions, as entirely conclusive.—Hon. John C. Spencer.

FACT 6. The Etymological part surpasses any thing that has been done for the English language by any earlier laborers in the same field.—George Bancroft.

FACT 7. I should greatly rejoice to see Dr. Webster's improvements in Orthography universally adopted, as I have no doubt they will be.—Professor Edwards, of Salem Normal School.

FACT 8. In reference to the modifications of orthographical notations, the critical judgment and refined taste of Professor Goodrich have left in his editions of Webster's Dictionary little ground of objection in regard to the peculiarities which proved the only drawback from the value of the original work.—Professor Russell, the Elocutionist.
