THE FEELING AT BERLIN. New York, May 12.-A special to the World from Berlin says: The gravest news from Madrid is expected hourly The return of the Spanish squadron from the Cape Verde Islands to Cadiz disgusts the Germans, who expected the fleet to give a grand account of itself in a battle with Admiral Sampson's ships in the vicinity of Porto Rico. The newspapers indulge in the bitterest invectives against Spain, which they say has completely relinquished her Indian possessions without a blow. It is generally recognized that the return of the fleet will be followed in Spain by a popular upheaval, which will seal the doom of the Alfonsist dynasty. The friends of Don Carlos say he is abso-

The cruiser Wilmington, the torpedo boat Winslow and the gunboat Hudson were the only vessels engaged. They entered the harbor for the purpose of attacking some Spanish gunboats which were known to be there. But the latter were not discovered by the American force until the Spaniards opened fire. The land batteries of Cardenas supported the fire of the Spanish gunboats. The engagement commenced at 2:01 p.m., and lasted for about one hour. The wounded are R. E. Cox, gunner's mate; D. McKeon, quarter-master; J.
