"HALF-CENTURY" YEAR OPENS WITH "ALL-SET" ASPECT; DIRECTORS ARE OPTIMISTIC SUNDAY'S

President Gartshore Gives an SOUNDS RINGING Inspiring Message at Directors' Meeting, Calling Attention to the Awakening Interest On Part of Citizens and the Merchants-Every Detail in Readiness When Gates Opened.

The big show, Western Ontario's greatest fair, is in full swing. The exhibits are all placed, the ballyhoo artists are on the job, the horses and cattle and sheep and chickens are all showing their best. The judges are pinning the red, and blue ribbons on the blue-blooded animals, and the whole machinery of the institution is humming merrily. The weather was rather chilly for the ceening, but it was not an unmixed evil. It rather encouraged the directors who are quite persuaded that the cool spell will pass over, with radiant sunshany weather for the balance of the week. That's all that they require to make the Fair touch the high spots in attendance as well as exhibits.

A Splendid Start.

One is struck by the fact that the directors and exhibitors have co-operated to get things working for this day. In other years there has been some dissatisfaction that conditions were not up to the mark, but there will be no grumbling this year on that score.

"We never had things in such good condition to start the Fair," said President W. M. Gartshore, with enthusiasm. "It is highly creditable." The weather was rather chilly for the

Consolidate Positions in Spite London Sees Possibility of All Scandinavia Being Involved, and of Hemming In the U-Boats By Action From Norwegian Base

[Special to The Advertiser.]

London, Sept. 10.—Possibilities of all Scandinavia being involved in the war were seen in London today, following America's revelations of the German-Swedish intrigue in sending messages from Argentina, through the Stockhalm Swedish intrigue in sending messages from Argentina through the Stockholm foreign office.

The disclosures, which are regarded as of highest importance, mean practically the ending of U-boat activities. The submarines have been traversing Norway's three-mile limit regardless of the illegality of the act. But an allied fleet, operating from a Norwegian base, would be able to stem the U-boats inside German waters, the naval experts assert.

Further Bloodshed Not Necessary, If Trust Be Placed In Reichstag's Power and In Movement Towards Democracy - Exhaustion To Guarantee Peace For Generation After the War.

> (By JOHN GRANDENS, U. P. Staff Correspondent.) (Copyrighted, 1917, by the United Press.)

Berlin, via London, Sept. 10 .- President Wilson can bring immediate peace if he will prove by acts the faith in the German people he has expressed in words. Philip Scheidemann, leader of the German Socialist majority party, declared today in an exclusive interview with the United Press.

'Further bloodshed is now unnecessary if America believes in and does not under-estimate the Reichstag's power and the strength of the German movement, which pushes irresistibly toward democratization of the entire public life," Scheidemann asserted. "It is pushing on, although as in America, war offers the worst chance for further development of democratic institutions.

'The German advance will be quicker the sooner the obstacles of war are removed.

Special significance attaches to Scheidemann's views. The German Socialist majority leader is now at the head of a special committee charged by the kaiser with investigating Germany's constitutional system and reforms.

'For one generation after the war,' he added, "the people will be unable to commence another war, and peace will be guaranteed automatically by the law of
