Funeral Flowers

We ask you to remember this shop when the need arises for funeral flowers. We excel in the making of floral set-pieces appropriate for solemn occasions.

At times like those, no one thinks of "values" and commercial niceties, yet it is well to know that we produce, in a conscientious way, the very finest possible creations for the amount of money appropriated for the purpose.

Provincial Statute Forbids Its Use On Outside of

that they will not pay the dollar vehicle tax for their automobiles this year.

Wants Test Case.
That the bylaw is not being fully enforced is the claim of Ald. Keene, and he asserts that in justice to others as well as himself he is going to put the bylaw to a test this year. He will not pay his tax, and he asks\that the city take him to court as a test case.

There are some who hold that the bylaw is not valid and cannot be enforced at all in reference to automobiles. Those who support the bylaw say that the only question that may be raised as to the legality of the bylaw is where the tag is to be placed on the forced.

An "ORIGINAL FIRST" COMING.—Among the No. 1 District party which arrived on the Minnedosa is Sergt. Harry Rowlands, an "original" First Battalion man, who is accompanied by his wife and two children. He enlisted at Woodstock, and has been wounded once. He was sergeant in charge of the bylaw is not valid and cannot be enforced at all in reference to automobiles. Those who support the bylaw is the theory will have charge of the arriving in this city, he and his family will stay with E. Bellanger, 48 Mount Pleasant avenue, a former 18th Battalion man.

This question, it is thought, should be taken up with county councils and grand juries. It has been brought before the grand jury at the assize court which is now in session at the courthouse, and it is expected that it will make mention of the matter. The grand jury's opinion will then be forwarded to the proper authorities.
