HALF A MILLION IN PICTURES ON SHOW

passed by the Ontario legislature in 1903, and we invite those who are sufficiently interested in our affairs to read it.

Public Library Gallery.

"But while this made our distant future more secure and much more attractive, it left us with no gallery in which to carry on our work unless we could obtain one temporarily. Toronto did not seem to possess a single building in which pictures could be properly viewed, and at the same time be reasonably free from the risk of fire. Many schemes were discussed, but with no success, until it was learned that the present gallery was to be a part of the public library plans.

"A frank discussion of our aims with the library board resulted in our obtaining possession for a term of years, on a basis which recognizes that what we seek to do is in the interest of the whole public. In this connection the gallery will be thrown open on at least one day and night of each week, free of charge. While the gallery will have exhibitions covering the major part of the year, under our own supervision, it is to be borne in mind that when any of the art societies of Canada exhibit in this gallery, they will do so without our supervision, and practically in the same manner as they do in the galleries they now use, unless some other arrangement is voluntarily made.

"Under the charter of the museum, as soon as we have 100 members, we must elect the regular council. This will now take place very shortly, and the provisional council will be dissolved.

Growth of Local Art.

"I hope everyone here will realize that we need a large membership, and that those who cannot aid our work in a more important way should, if they can afford it, and if they are really interested in art, ally themselves with our effort in this manner. The effect of our work on Canada must be important, but after all it will be important in near relation to the financial support we obtain.

"Ten years ago there were practically no foreign pictures in Toronto, and you have only to look at these walls to realize the tremendous change that has taken place. These are great and joyous possessions, and in time our museum will have a collection of its own, representing the art of foreign countries, but let us always remember that our main purpose is to foster the creation of art in our own country.

"We believe that we must first make an environment of beautiful creations in art without regard to where they may have come into being, but that with this evironment and its corollary, a more intelligent and catholic community in artistic matters, we may hope to take the position in the art world that our other aspirations as a nation demand."

Some of Those Present.

Besides His Honor Major Macdonald, A.D.C., and Mr. Walker, there were present among others: Prof. Mavor, James Loudon, LL.D., Wm. Laidlaw, K.C., J. P. Murray, J. Aren. Brown, Enoch Thompson, George H. Locke, G. A. Reid, R.C.A.; E. F. B. Johnston, K.C.; E. R. Wood, Dr. Reeve, J. C. Eaton, C. W. Jeffrey, Wyly Grier, P.O.S.A.; Prof. Macallum, F.R.S.; Hon. S. G. Biggs, R. A. Donald, Edward Fisher, Mus. Doc.; W. R. Brock, G. W. Yarker, Dr. A. McPhedran, Prof. Ramsay Wright, S. G. Curry, Curtis Williamson, J. W. L. Forster, G. R. R. Cockburn, George Dickson, Dr. Harold Clark, E. Douglas Armour, K.C.; Fred. Challener, George Wilkie, Prof. W. H. Ellis, J. W. Beatty, Prof. Mackenzie, A. J. Glazebroow, Gustave Hahn, E. A. DuVernet, K.C.; E. H. Keating, R. F. Stupart.

The Pictures.

Thanks to the generosity and public spirit of a number of the leading art-collectors of Toronto, the organizers of this exhibition have been enabled to hang an interesting collection of paintings, particularly of the British and French schools. The galleries are well adapted for the purpose, the lighting is good and care has been taken to arrange the pictures to advantage and to provide seats permitting of their leisurely examination. Altogether this exhibition must be pronounced a distinct success, very creditable to the provisional council of the Art Museum of Toronto and the library authorities who collaborated.

Prominent among the exhibits are several portraits by Sir Joshua Reynolds, that of Horace Walpole, the noted diarist, being a thoroly characteristic work. Another charming artist attractively represented is Sir John Lawrence, usually peculiarly happy in his presentation of beautiful women. Henry Raeburn, Scotland's greatest portrait painter, whose works are becoming more and more appreciated, is also well represented, tho none come up to the highest standard of his art. Another Scottish artist, Sir David Wilkie, famous for his humorous characterization of Scottish humble life, is the subject of a portrait painted by himself for Sir Robert Peel.

Light of the Harem.

A fine work of the late Lord Leighton, "The Light of the Harem," is on view and is a pleasing example of his cultured pencil. "Fonthill Abbey," by Turner, greatest of English landscapists, will be a special attraction for its exquisite atmosphere, luminous sky and the ease and masterfulness of its drawing. John Linnell is well represented by an English landscape, and the Rev. John Thomson of Duddingston, a Presbyterian minister, whose paintings were remarkable in their day and are still well worth study, is represented by a characteristic landscape. Two excellent examples of the work of John Lavery, one of the originators of the Glasgow school, "A Lady in Black" and "A Lady in Pink," are also on the walls. There is a splendid tripie portrait of Sir George Wilson by Sir George Reid, ex-president of the Royal Scottish Academy, conspicuous for virile treatment and grasp of character.

Among other British artists there are William McTaggart, Peter Graham and Rev. M. Stevenson, the canvases hung being all good examples. Of French artists there are many represented—Corot, Latour, Roybet, D'Aubigny, Gerome, Jacque and others, and of the Flemish and Dutch schools, Thoten, Pieters, Weissenbruch, Jacobs and William Maris, Josef Israels, Willy Martyns and Jurres. Taken all over the exhibition thoroly deserves popular support and it is to be hoped the labor of the council and officials will be rewarded, by a large audience during its currency. Next Saturday and the two succeeding Saturdays will be free days, in order that everyone may have an opportunity to profit from the admirable collection that has been got together. It is a good beginning for a movement deserving full public recognition.

POISONED BY CREAM PUFFS

Young Negro Boy is Dead After Partaking of the Confection.

ST. CATHARINES, Nov. 24.—(Special.)—Coroner J. M. Cory this afternoon opened an official enquiry into the causes which led to the death of Alonzo Lane, a 14-year-old negro boy.

The facts are none too clear at present. Last Thursday the boy purchased half a dozen cream puffs from a bakeshop here and shared them with Robt. Richards, a young white boy. Not long after both lads developed symptoms which appeared to some to be from poison.

Richards hurried to his home, where he was given immediate attention, which revived him. Lane returned to a store where he was employed, and from there he went into a drug store owned by Percy M. Dwyer, a few doors away. Dwyer was out, but the clerk in charge gave him something to relieve his pain. The remedy was not effective, however, and the boy was sent to his home, where he continued very ill until last night, when he died.

Dr. J. M. Sheahan, who had attended, informed the coroner that the tongue had evidently come in contact with corrosive sublimate or some such irritant poison. Upon this statement, after a conference with Crown Attorney Brennan, an inquest was ordered and the following jury empanneled: Chas. Taylor, J. K. Black, C. A. Wilson, J. W. Coy, Joseph Hodgins, George McLean, William McLean, John Call, John Woodward, A. Wallace, George Gordon, Thomas Dow.

After viewing the body adjournment was made till to-morrow night. Drs. Sheahan and Mullock to-night performed a post-mortem examination.

The Player Piano Par Excellence.

The Player Piano made by Heintzman & Co., 115-117 West King-street, is about as perfect as it can be made. The materials are the finest obtainable and every part of the instrument is the result of careful study and large experience in piano-building. The completed instrument is one of the most beautiful ever turned out, not only in workmanship, but in tone.

FINED $100 AND COSTS.

GALT, Nov. 24.—(Special.)—A fine of $100 and costs was registered against Adam Jenkins of the Temperance Hotel, Branchton, for selling liquor in a local option district.

It is the first case since the act came into force. License Inspector Knowles laid the information.

Boarder or Householder ?

BERLIN, Nov. 24.—(Special.)—Ex-Mayor Allen Huber appealed to the court of revision to-day to be assessed as a householder of property owned by Mrs. H. Moyer, where he resides. The court held he was only a boarder, and therefore not qualified. He will appeal before Judge Chisholm.

FIRE WAGONS TO CARRY "FIRST AID" OUTFITS

Firemen Will Be Able to Provide Emergency Care For Injured—Summonses for "Guying" Cops.

HAMILTON, Nov. 24.—(Special.)—The cemetery board this evening increased the salary of Superintendent S. H. Rutherford from $1200 to $1500 a year.

Mary Murphy, Burlington and Wood-streets, who claimed that she broke her leg in climbing over the cemetery fence, put in a claim for damages. She said all the gates were locked, and that she was forced to climb over the fence to get out. Mr. Rutherford said one of the gates was not locked, and the claim was turned over to the board's solicitor.

John Lacey and J. Cotter have been summoned on the charge of "guying" Constables Cameron and Barrett, who are doing plain clothes duty. The constables have been making the rounds of some of the pool rooms hunting for loafers, and it was claimed that the pair made fun of them.

Alfred Wright died at the city hospital this afternoon. He was a locksmith and had lived in Hamilton for many years.

Mrs. Jessie Ireland, 42 Stanley-avenue, died this evening aged 82 years.

A Good Idea.

The fire and water committee this evening purchased eight boxes containing first aid to the injured outfit at $6.15 each, for the fire department, a course of instruction being thrown in with each box. The chairman and chief were empowered to make a settlement with I. Pickar, whose rig was damaged Tuesday evening in collision with a fire department wagon. The chief recommended the installation of a system to give the mountain annex fire protection at a cost of about $1190. Action was deferred, tho it is probable that something will be done before the end of the year. A number of mains will be laid down in the new annex, so as to give the residents a temporary supply of water until next spring.

Revenue Officer Dead.

James Bartindale Bishop, 208 Northwest avenue, a member of the inland revenue staff, died this morning.

William Sutton, 31 Elgin-street, was fined $15 for being drunk and disorderly on the Brantford & Hamilton Railway car.

The City Hospital authorities would like information concerning Henry T. Clews, who was taken from his room at 134 North John-street to the hospital in an unconscious condition. He is about 80 years of age, and formerly lived at Sillsville, near Napanee.

There will be 69 polling sub-divisions at the next municipal elections, only three being allotted to the new annex.

A charge of insanity was laid against James Christenson, Ancaster, by one of his sons, and the other children are making objections. He is 80 years of age.

The marriage of Arthur J. Moore, the Tiger half-back, and Miss Lena White, took place to-day at the home of the bride at Dutton.

May Contest Will.

The will of the late Mrs. Quimby was filed for probate this morning. She left $11,792, as follows: W. G. Moore, $4900; Barbara A. Duff, cousin, $2065; Louisa Maguire, niece, $14; Frank Bradley, nephew, $672; Alfred L. Brown, nephew, $5; Elmira H. Hamilton, cousin, $20; W. A. H. Duff, K.C., $1; Maggie Maguire, grand-niece, $667; Charles Bradley, grand-nephew, $667; Henrietta Sherstein, niece, $1000; Rev. A. E. Mitchell, $100. The relatives will probably contest the will.

Dr. Small will preach the sermons at the eighty-fifth anniversary of the First Methodist Church next Sunday.

William Kelly, formerly of Brockville, died last night.

Canon and Mrs. Sutherland celebrated the fortieth anniversary of their wedding to-day.

A THEME FOR "EXCELSIOR."

Seven years before in the rugged Alps had the sure-footed chamois butted unsuspectedly into an English tourist and sent him hurtling below into the green pastures of the adjoining canton; and now this same tourist is scaling those same Alps in search of the treacherous chamois. By bounds he climbs the icy peaks and walks up mountainous walls almost perpendicularly inclined. The chamois leaps to still more inaccessible heights. Fearlessly onward ascended the tourist; his Dunlop "Sure Step" Rubber Heels holding every inch of the ground and forcing the fatigued chamois into a cleft of the rock, he deliberately smote it with his alpenstock.

Cheap Gas for Port Arthur.

PORT ARTHUR, Nov. 24.—(Special.)—There is a possibility of Port Arthur and Fort William joining hands for the purpose of procuring gas for lighting and heating purposes at a low rate.

Port Arthur Council has expressed its willingness to open negotiations to that end and has appointed a representative to wait on the joint board which has been managing the street railway, and ask it to sit on behalf of the two cities.

A bylaw to authorize giving a site to the Port Arthur Steel and Wagon Works will be submitted again at the municipal elections. It was voted on last summer, but the vote, tho proportionately large in favor, did not total sufficient to make the giving of the site legal.

Oxford Scholar to Lecture.

David G. Hogarth, M.A., curator of the Ashmolean museum in the University of Oxford, will lecture under the auspices of the Toronto Archaeological Society at the University of Toronto on the evening of Wednesday, December 8. Mr. Hogarth is an author of note, who has for a number of years conducted explorations and excavations in Asia Minor and other eastern lands. The lecture is free to the public.

Great Storm in Oregon.

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 24.—The unprecedented storm that has prevailed in the Pacific northwest for two days shows no signs of abating.

GETTING BACK TO HISTORY.

With some concern Achilles stood regarding the wound in his foot.

"I shall buy me Dunlop 'Sure Step,'" he was heard to remark. "They will aid me."

"And why, pray?" asked one of the attendant nymphs. "Why will Dunlop 'Sure Steps' help you?"

"Because Rubber Heels," said Achilles as he sped buoyantly away.

Missionaries to China.

The executive committee of the general Methodist mission board yesterday decided to send candidates to western China as follows: One, for educational work; one for evangelistic work, one for missionary architecture, and two medical men.

Rev. James Turner of Vancouver has resigned his charge of Chinese work in British Columbia. The appointment of a successor was left to General Secretaries Dr. Sutherland and T. E. Shore.

Miss Hendershott will give an exhibition of decorated china in her studio, Grenville Building, 468 Yonge-street, from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m., Thursday, Friday and Saturday, Nov. 25, 26 and 27.
