E. Breek, E.R., won the juvenile class but he had a hard row to hoe at that, as S. Gold, El., made him go an extraperiod for the decision. The juvenile class was good all thru.

The midget class consists of small boys, but my how they did work! The bouts in this and the fuvenile were both worth going miles to see. W. Gold and J. Shinnaman were in the final and how they did work and sweat. W. Gold made a touch down in an extra period. Winners: Open Class, M. Hazen, (E.R.); Intermediate, heavy, 125 lbs., C. Tossell, (E.R.); Intermediate, light, 115 lbs., R. Telbot, (McC); Junior, 100lbs., A. Blackburn, (E.R.); Juvenile, 85 lbs., E. Break, (E.R.); Midget, 70 lbs., W. Gold, (El.).

JACK DUNN'S TEAM STARTS TRAINING of Internationals to Begin Spring Campaign-Baseball Notes.

Baltimore, Md., March 20 .- With prac tically all of his hold-outs in line, Jack Dunn led the advance squad of the Orioles out of town last evening. The Birds reached Wilmington, the training camp, today at noon, and Dunnie handed out the uniforms for an afternoon drill. Lefty Russell, the first-sacker, was among those who followed the local magnate thru the station gate. He was the only hold out who sent back his contract unsaned. He did not sign the papers before leaving the city, despite the fact that Dunnie told him no one would be taken into camp ing the city, despite the fact that Dunnie told him no one would be taken into camp unless tied to the club.

Alex. Schaufele, catcher; Minot Crowel, a twirler, and Shannon did not report, but it is believed they will soon follow.

Among the players who left here last night with Manager Dunn were Rommel, Sheehan. Hagey, McConnell, Lee, McAvoy, Miller. Thormahlen, Russell, Wilson, Fewster, Brown, O'Hara and Dayless.

BASEBALL GOSSIP. Pitcher Markle, a morning glory, as re gards last season, writes the Toronto Club that he does not feel like playing ball the coming summer and will likely retire. The figures in his contract did not likely suit him, but he may revise his estimate before the season starts.

Zack Wheat, Brooklyn clouter, arrived in Hot Springs Saturday, and is expected to sign a contract for 1917.

White Sox players at Mineral Wells. Texas, worrying over the possibility of a rail tie-up, had their minds set at rest when Sergt. Smiley, drill master, assured them that by the end of the month they would be in condition to march from city to city on the circuit.

Charles (Swede) Risberg, a recruit infielder with the Chicago Americans at Mineral Wells, Texas, is declared to be one of the most promising players brought into the major leagues in several years. The player is considered such a brilliant prospect that President Weeghman of the Chicago Nationals made an attempt to buy his release. Risberg is playing shortstop with the White Sox in their training camp here, and his sharp fielding and batting have won the admiration of Manager Rowland. He was purchased from the Vernon Club of the Pacific Coast League.
