AVOID FREEZING BY GETTING COAL NOW, DESPITE BIG PRICE

Such is Carvell's Advice, Yet Toronto Dealers Reject Twenty Cars.

EMBARGO CAUSES STIR

Ottawa, Aug. 6.—(Canadian Press).—When asked today as to the coal situation in Canada and the effect of the embargo recently issued by the board of commissioners against the exportation of coal, Hon. B. Carvell, chairman of the board, stated that, generally speaking, all of Canada, west of Fort William, will be able to obtain whatever coal might be required and that the same was true of the maritime provinces. So far as he could see, while there would be a scarcity of anthracite, yet, in his opinion, there would be enough to meet the actual needs of the people providing the people were willing to purchase their coal as rapidly as it could be delivered, but if, as has been the custom in the past, householders wait until the cold weather arrives, they may find great difficulty in laying in a sufficient store.

Carvell stated that the price would be probably somewhat excessive. When asked as to what could be done regarding the fixing of the price, he stated that it was impossible at the present time to do anything because all the anthracite coal consumed in Canada, all the bituminous coal for Ontario and a very large part for Quebec comes in from the United States, where there is no price fixing and, therefore, our people are compelled to pay whatever prices the producer may demand, and as these

CRIMES BILL IS PASSED SCENES IN COMMONS DEVLIN IS SUSPENDED

Irish Member is Defiant and Walks Out Followed by Nationalists and Many Liberals—Majority in Favor of the Bill is 206 to 18—Attempt to Limit Operation to One Year Fails.

London, Aug. 6.—By an overwhelming majority of 206 to 18 the government this evening passed the Irish crimes bill designed to restore order in Ireland. Lengthy debates preceded the voting in the house of commons, but lacking the presence of Premier Lloyd George and Herbert H. Asquith, they did not stir the interest which attached to yesterday's discussion, and went far less acrimonious.

FEELING OF BUOYANT OPTIMISM IN WEST. D. I. FARMERS STATES

Sanguine Farmers Will Have Good Crop and Make Big Prices.

FAITH IN FUTURE

There is a splendid feeling of buoyant optimism in the west, and I am sanguine that the farmers will have a good crop and get a good price. This was the keynote of an interesting talk which a World reporter had at the head offices of the Canadian National Railway System yesterday afternoon with President D. B. Hanna, who has just returned from an inspection tour that carried him and his official staff to the Pacific coast. Mr. Hanna stopped at many points in the prairie west and went through to British Columbia by the Grand Trunk Pacific steamer line to Vancouver and Victoria.

WRECKED HOUSES IN IRISH VILLAGE

Dublin, Aug. 6.—Two hundred cottagers today railed and wrecked six houses in the village of Doon, according to advices received here from Thurles.

VERDICT RETURNED WITHOUT FOREMAN

Manslaughter is Charged Against Motor Driver—Is Verdict Null and Void?

At an inquest last night, into the death of David Gordon, a policeman's son, the jury returned a verdict of manslaughter. The verdict was null and void because the foreman was absent.

LANDING IN LIVERPOOL FORBIDDEN TO MANNIX

London, Aug. 7.—In view of a police report of the possibility of rioting in Liverpool, the government has decided that Archbishop Mannix shall not be allowed to land there, says The Daily Mail.

FEELING RUNS HIGH IN CHILD MURDER CASE

St. Catharines, Aug. 6.—David McNeag, held in connection with the disappearance of Margaret Boucock, a four-year-old Thorold child, whose body was found Wednesday, done to death on the Welland ship canal route, was not brought to Thorold today for his formal remand to jail. Feeling has been high in that town against the prisoner since the discovery of the body of the child. Today, rather than bring the prisoner from the Welland jail to Thorold lock-up, Police Magistrate Munro, at the request of the Welland and executed the remand at the county seat.

TRANSFERS DUTIES OF CROWN TO THE IRISH COURTS-MARTIAL

Text of New Crimes Bill Passed in Commons—Any Persons Sentenced in Ireland May Be Imprisoned in England.

London, Aug. 6.—Any persons upon whom sentences of imprisonment have been passed in Ireland could be conveyed to and detained in any prison in the United Kingdom under the terms of the Irish crimes bill which passed in the commons today. This section of the measure applies to persons who may hereafter be sentenced. In general the new law would transfer the duties of crown tribunals in Ireland to courts-martial. The military courts also would take over the duties of coroners and would have the power to legislate cases without jury.

MADE AGAINST INTERNATIONAL NICKEL AND AMBROSE MONELL—BLOCKS STOCKS TO MINISTERS AND PUBLIC MEN—NEWSPAPERS BONUSED—SENATORSHIPS AND PUBLIC OFFICE CONTROLLED BY ADVENTURERS FROM STATES—DRURY GOVERNMENT TO CLEAN UP.

MAY SUMMON CONGRESS IN SPECIAL SESSION

Call in View of Polish Crisis is Regarded as a Possibility—Diplomatic Exchanges Taking Place—Four Plans Considered.

Washington, Aug. 6.—The Polish situation now has reached a point where the calling of congress in special session to consider America's attitude in the crisis is regarded as a possibility, although officials close to the White House were careful to add today that this was only a possibility and not a probability.

Must Be Investigated by Drury.

But the point that will suggest itself to Canadians, on which Ontario particularly would like to make some inquiries in view of the press accounts of Mr. Monell's contribution of $250,000 raised on General Wood—$250,000 of money taken out of Ontario, whether the Drury government and the minister of finance at Ottawa are going to make an effort to secure the full mining taxes, the enormous excess profits tax, the nickel tax, by technical manipulation of its incorporation papers, enabled it to take out of Canada to pay to United States speculators, politicians and to the United States government, taxation, in succession duties, like those on Capt. De La Mar, of $30,000,000 estates.
