ALL'S READY FOR THE BIG GAME TODAY

THREE GOOD RACES
TODAY AT DUFFERINChances of the Horses in the Events on Toronto Driving Club's Program.

Tryster, Behave Yourself, Butter Scotch, The Toronto Driving Club have three good races on the card for this afternoon at Dufferin Park. The first event is the 218 trot, with a well-balanced field, the betting, but it is no 3-to-10 chance against Gossett Bird and Miss Clara Todd, is either one of these two is liable to take his measure today. The latter is going great guns in her work and Driver Wyatt is confident; so look out for a surprise in this event.

In the 214 pace, in which there are two who are making their first appearance here—Jack Powers and Facing Star from the stables of J. Halla, Gueph, and B. Porter of Hamilton, both of whom have been very consistent race horses, especially the gray horse, who has won many a race and, with our King and Rona Bison in, there should be a great contest; and it should not be a straight heat affair; but, when the pay of man goes aound, Rona Bison will likely get the long end of the purse, as her two fast races have shown her to be in great form.

In the 225 pace, about the same field as met last Saturday will score down for the word, and will be hard to guess. We might pick the winner of the race in Lacy Zombro, but to land on the heat winners will be tough going, but that's what makes the game good, so come on out to Dufferin Park and have a good afternoon's sport.

The racing will start at 1:30, in this order: 218 trot, 214 pace, and the 225 pace. The track is at its best now, and will be kept that way for the horsemen till it is used for the big ice meetings to come off during Christmas and New Years.

WEST END HARRIER
HANDICAP TODAY

This year's handicap Harrier run and walk, which is held annually by the West End Y.M.C.A., will get under way at two o'clock this afternoon, when the first group of men start out from the building with a substantial handicap. The entry for this year's race promises to exceed all former records for this event since it was made an annual race thirteen years ago. The plan of presenting every man who covers the course with a handsome prize, brought out forty-eight runners for last year's race, which was won by N. Blake, with 3 min. 30 sec. handicap. The course is two and one-half miles, and is marked out down Dovercourt road, along Argyle street, up Gladstone, along Waterloo, up Dufferin, thru Dufferin grove, along Shephard, and down Dovercourt to the finish at the northwest corner of College and Dovercourt.
