AT THE NICKEL

Today at the Nickel there will be three whole-reel pictures of high-class character, each one a masterpiece in its line. The pictures are to be: Edison's late romantic creation Strolling Players, a return to the days of traveling show outfits when such players were classed with Gypsies and vagabonds. There is a pretty story interwoven. The next interesting picture is Selig's Brother Against Brother, a stirring incident of the American civil war with plenty of dash and action, horse running, etc. The third reel is to be a return, by special request, of the edifying picture by the Edison Company, Where Is My Wandering Boy Tonight, which is to be talked by the New York Talking Picture Company. Miss Edwards and Mr. Courtnais will continue in their excellent vocal numbers and the orchestra will have a new bill.

AT THE STAR

The Star Theatre continues to get the crowd that likes a good clean educative show. Tonight the bill of pictures will include:—The Unfortunate Child, a pathetic drama; The Chinaman, a unique comedy, and Chasing the Helmet, another funny affair. There will be two other pictures to round out a characteristic Star bill of fare. Miss Colyer, whose fine singing is attracting many to the theatre, will continue in her excellent ballad, "This Rose Brings My Heart to You."

WOMEN'S AUXILIARY IN ANNUAL SESSION

Mrs. Thomas Walker, President of the Women's Auxiliary of the Church of England, Read Her Annual Address Yesterday Afternooon

At the afternoon session of the Women's Auxiliary of the Church of England yesterday in St. John's (Stone) church, Mrs. Thomas Walker, the president, gave her annual address. She welcomed all, expressed pleasure at Mrs. Richardson's presence, welcomed Mrs. Heber Hamilton from the Japan field and Miss McKim, from Persia.

Mrs. Walker spoke of what a wonderful year it was in extension of missionary knowledge. Reference to Mrs. Kuhring attending the Pan-Anglican congress as a delegate from the auxiliary was made. There was reference also to the triennial meeting of the women's auxiliary in Ottawa in September.

Mrs. Walker spoke joyfully of the increasing interest in the auxiliary throughout the diocese and at the formation of new branches as a result. She thanked the officers of parochial branches, spoke of the progress of the girls' branches, thanked the secretary of the babies' branch and said there was in hand a plan to open a field of missionary usefulness for the boys. Representatives of out of town branches were thanked, also the executive officers and the bishop and clergy.

After the president's address, the report of the recording secretary was received and adopted. The secretary, Mrs. C. E. Howard, reported that during the year eleven new branches of the auxiliary had been formed. Eight life members were elected during the twelve months. These were: Mrs. Robert Randolph, Fredericton; Mrs. Peters, Mrs. R. P. McKim, Miss Paton, Mrs. Woodford Smith, Mrs R. Downing Paterson, Mrs. W. S. Neales and Mrs. James F. Robertson.

Mrs. Richardson, wife of His Lordship Bishop Richardson, read an interesting paper on Canadian Missionaries in India, after which the report of Mrs. E. M. Forster, the corresponding secretary, was read. This was lengthy and interesting.

Mrs. Heber J. Hamilton, of Nagoya, Japan, gave an interesting talk on her work in that country and the conditions there.

The report of the treasurer, Mrs. Mary A. Robertson, showed that the finances of the organization were generally in a very satisfactory condition.

The St. John members of the Women's Auxiliary last night entertained the visiting delegates to a very pleasant reception in the parlors of St. John's (Stone) church. A large number attended. An excellent programme, consisting of vocal and instrumental numbers was presented and refreshments were served.
