NOVEL PICTURE IS WEST OF BROADWAY

Priscilla Dean Golf Instructor in Fine Comedy at Imperial

The teaching of golf to a bunch of playful, bow-legged cowboys is an interesting feature of the story of Priscilla Dean's current Metropolitan star production, "West of Broadway," which is now on at the Imperial. The scene is laid in the wild and woolly West, where men are men and where one particular man, a woman-hater, forms an exclusive golf and country club, the slogan of which is "No women allowed."

The woman-hater (Arnold Gray) sends to an Eastern club for a golfing instructor. Several weeks later Priscilla Dean rides into town, manfully dressed in golf knicker and top coat. The club members think she is a "nice looking young man," and they plan an elaborate dinner in honor of their new instructor. But when the boys are eating, it develops that the
