Boston College, victors in the Eastern Inter-Collegiate at Springfield a week ago, had hopes of gaining further honors, and Brown University had in a small group of athletes so many of whom that they felt they too had a chance to win.

Alf's Button

VERYBODY KNOWS that when Aladdin rubbed his Magic Lamp an Oriental Genie immediately appeared and executed the most fantastic wish of the wishful young man. Now bring this story up to date. Imagine a soldier's button made of the brass from that magic lamp, and again imagine that button sewed on the coat of an illiterate Cockney Tommy in the trenches. From the moment the snappy Sergeant Major ordered the Tommy to polish up his buttons, eliciting the murmured protest "Stroke me pink" (when Presli the Genie appeared) until the last flip of the seventh reel off the screen, this comedy is a delirium of fun and hilarity. Clean, wholesome, clever and dandy if it ain't natural too! Has packed theatres for weeks' runs in all cities, and still going strong.

Worm weather is needed now to enable the bees to perform their task. More attention has been given to orchards this year than for five years past, owing to good apple prices last year.

But wheat seedling is practically completed in the southern portions of the three prairie provinces, and good progress has been made in other sections. Seedling is completed almost throughout
