PREPARATIONS FOR WELCOME TO 26TH

At a meeting of the citizens' reception committee, last evening, plans were considered for the welcome of the 26th. S. H. Mayes presided.

All members of the original 26th are asked to be on hand as a guard of honor. The members of the cadet corps will turn out and it is expected the Boy Scouts will also take part. A committee was formed to interview the Temple Band and the Depot Battalion Band to ask them both to turn out. The Knights of Columbus are to entertain the boys at the armories. The women's patriotic societies have been invited to places along the line of march. The troops will probably be reviewed at the head of King Square by the premier, mayor and military command.

ANOTHER FINE NEW BILL OFFERED AT THE OPERA HOUSE

Kirke Brown in New Gripping Playlet, Rousing Comedy and Acrobatic Acts, Good Music and Thrilling Finale of Iron Test

The Opera House vaudeville programme opening yesterday scored a real success, being varied, with plenty of comedy and novelty.

Neckleson, a French magician, had everybody on the qui vive with deft feats of sleight of hand, with cards and coins, and brought the house down when he took almost a cartload of articles from an ordinary derby hat borrowed from an accommodating gentleman in the audience. He was a good hit.

Sloan and Moore, two dainty misses, sang, stepped, wore some stunning costumes, and livened things up with some comedy numbers and received an enthusiastic encore that was well deserved.

Kirke Brown and Marguerite Fields, assisted by a clever young actor, offered a good dramatic playlet with a gripping story that held everybody tense with interest until the very last line. Admirers of Mr. Brown and those who appreciate good acting will like this playlet very much.

Bernard and Harris, a smart couple, kept everybody in good humor with comedy songs, witty sayings and a novel finish sent them off with a generous round of applause.

McNutt and Evelyn, two comedy acrobats in funny bumps and falls, had everybody in roars of laughter at the start and then made them sit right up straight with some of the best trick bicycle riding we have seen here for a long time. That the audience sat in their seats until the final bow was a tribute to the worth of the act. It was good and worth seeing.

The final chapter of the serial, "The Iron Test," brought the heroine through some thrilling stunts and escapes to a happy ending and the villain for his finish to everybody's satisfaction.
