OUR ANIMAL STORY

Col. Roosevelt, Ernest Thompson, Seaton, Chas. G. D. Roberts and other writers of animal stories are understood to be on their way to Public Landing to hold communion with a chancier in the barnyard of a farmer and poultryer at that place.

It appears that a skunk appeared in the barnyard one night recently, and taking advantage of a easy opportunity destroyed six chickens. The farmer, however, was not so easily frightened by his gun, and, waiting patiently, was last rewarded by a glimpse of the skunk as it ran across the barn.

THE WORKING MAN

St. John, N. B., Sept. 8.—The Editor of the "Times." Sir—The average working man is not a man who has a good deal of common sense, and who, when the facts are clearly presented to him, can be led to take the right step in the interests of his family.

Get-Ready-Days For School Days!

Keeping the little ones neatly dressed and provided with the proper tools for work and play is a good investment. It builds character and self respect—and pays dividends in happiness, good manners, and good morals. Providing for the needs of children is a science to which many manufacturers and merchants devote their busy lives. Now is their show season—and through the advertising columns of the newspapers like The Evening Star and Times they are telling you what they have done. Advertising completes the circle of service and brings the news directly to your home. You can plan at your own leisure, and the advertising will be better and happier for your planning.

THE "CHOCOLATE KING" IS DEAD

M. Henri Menier Passed Away on Saturday

Paris, Sept. 7.—M. Henri Menier, rich and famous chocolate manufacturer, died yesterday at his home in Pantoulat. M. Menier, the "chocolate king" of the Island of Antiochia, was born in 1858. His family had acquired many millions of dollars in manufacturing. Henri, always a quiet youth of studious habits, and intelligent beyond his years, was called upon to take charge of his father's vast interests at eighteen. He literally worked in one day from a school room to the private office of a business, meaning in private and importance more than one hundred million francs. At nineteen he had mastered the details, at twenty he began to enlarge and plan, at twenty-five he had practically doubled the output, at thirty his name was a household word in four continents, and at thirty-eight his fortune had reached the enormous figure of two hundred million francs, and for two he bought the Island of Antiochia. PINDER REBELS OVER EXTRAVAGANCE IN THE CAPITAL BRIDGE WORK

Frederickton, N. B., Sept. 8.—James K. Pinder, M.P.E., has entered an emphatic protest with Premier Flemming against the extravagant expenditure of public money being made on the Fredericton April and the Foundations Company, Ltd., has been engaged to rebuild the bridge, and now, with a percentage basis, night and day crews are at work, and the cost is to be something enormous. Mr. Pinder said the local members of the Y.M.C.A. were being blamed for this exhibition of government extravagance and for he did not propose to stand for it. The premier pacified Pinder by telling him that a statement of cost, together with estimate of future cost, would be laid before the executive at Tuesday's meeting.

CHANCERY SUIT OVER OPTION ON CANTERBURY STREET PROPERTY

Hearing was had before Chief Justice Barker in the Chancery Division this morning in the case of Roger Hunter vs. Michael Farrell. This is a suit brought for specific performance of an alleged agreement to sell the property at the corner of Canterbury and Church streets, belonging to the Farrell estate. The plaintiff says he has an option on the property at $100,000. This the defendant denies. Richard and Percy Hunter and Michael Farrell were the executors of the late Michael Farrell's will. Mr. T. G. Teed, K. C., appeared for the plaintiff, and Messrs. Powell & Harrison for the defendant.
