CONTRACTS FOR COURT HOUSE WORK AWARDED

Municipality Committee Deals With Woodwork and Furnishings Today

ALL TO BE DONE BY SAINT JOHN MEN

Jas. Sproul, Desk Company and M. R. A., Ltd. Are Selected.

The contracts for the fitting and furnishing of the court rooms and council chamber in the restored court house were awarded this morning to James Sproul, the Saint John Desk Company and Manchester Robertson Allison, Ltd. The prices were not given out but it was said the fittings and furnishings for the court rooms would not exceed the estimate of the architect, $5,000. It was said the whole work will cost when completed between $80,000 and $85,000.

One to Contractor.

The contract for the fittings of the court room which include the judges' bench and platform, jury box, prisoners' box and railings, was awarded to James Sproul, the general contractor for the work.

The contract for the furnishings of the court rooms and council chamber, which include chairs, tables, desks and metal book cases and filing cabinets, was divided between the Saint John Desk Company and Manchester Robertson Allison, Ltd.

The furniture for the court rooms will be of mahogany and that for the council chamber will be of oak.

Hon. R. W. Wignome, warden of the county, Mayor Potts and Councillor O'Brien were the members in charge of awarding the contracts.

OUTING ON BEACH

St. Jude's Boy Scouts Summer Time Trip to Duck Cove.

Weather conditions have assisted the following out of Scout ideals for St. Jude's troop No. 5, at least, for the boys have been holding their meetings outdoors for more than a month. Under the direction of their Scoutmaster, Harry Fowler, the boys went on Monday evening to Duck Cove, leaving signs and marks as they went for one of their members to follow them after a short lapse of time. The boys enjoyed a game in the heavy woods, trying to creep up on their scoutmaster by stalking. On the beach a council fire was built and games were played, and a sing-song closed the happy outing.

St. Jude's boys are already planning their summer outing at Long Island, where they went last year in July.

Cubs Do Well.

The Wolf Club Pack is making fine progress, with Douglas MacLennan as master. He is a troop leader in the Scouts and has done excellent work in training the younger boys of the cubs. The district troop will meet in the Armories on Saturday evening at 7.30 o'clock.

Likely Start On New School In Few Days

The contract for the Saint John Vocational School for which J. A. Grant & Co. tendered successfully will likely be signed late this afternoon. F. Neil Brodie, the architect, said this morning that everything would be ready for the signing of the agreement today. He expected that work on the building site in Douglas avenue would be started within two days.

IS FINED $10

John Hodgson was fined $10 in the Police Court this morning by Magistrate Henderson in an automobile case being reported by three counts, for not sounding his klaxon, for not giving the proper signal and for making the wrong turn. He pleaded guilty only to the last charge. Policeman Quinn gave evidence.

Saint John Bills to be Taken Up In Fredericton Tomorrow

TOMORROW will be Saint John day at Fredericton, when bills from this city will be taken up by the municipalities committee. It is expected that some of the county bills will also be considered by the committee. Mayor Potts and Commissioners Wignome and Bullock will leave this afternoon for Fredericton to be present when the bills are considered. Councillors O'Brien and Campbell and J. King Kelley, K. C., county secretary, are expected to attend the meeting of the committee as well.

Brighten Up With Linoleum

Spring house cleaning will bring to your attention how dingy some of your old floor coverings are looking, and it will solve all your problems if you will call and see our stock of all the new patterns. Surprising how a new linoleum will brighten up the darkest room or hall.

While on the subject of housecleaning we might suggest articles which would aid in the actual renovating or improve the appearance of the house afterward. Sterling Cedar-Oil Polish, O-Cedar, Liquid Veneer, Johnson's Liquid Wax, O-Cedar Mops, Bissel's Carpet Sweepers, are all aids in cleaning, and cocoa door mats, hearty rugs, dainty bed-room rugs, etc., are inexpensive hints for keeping that bright, cheery atmosphere alive.
