The teachers and officers of the School have much pleasure in submitting the annual report for the year 1893.

Number of scholars on roll including Bible and Infant Classes 254.
 Number of teachers and officers 41. Average attendance of teachers and officers 33. Average attendance of scholars 197. Average number of scholars attending church 49.

Thirteen scholars have become communicants during the year.

The regular classes were suspended during July and August, in order that teachers and scholars absent from the city might enjoy the holiday without feeling that they were neglecting the school. The school, however, remained open during these months and was fairly well attended.

The International Series of Lessons have been studied, and the following scholars received Kirk-Session prizes for having recited the entire Shorter Catechism:—Sarah Campbell, Annie McBride, Annie Gillie, Birdie McDonald, Lizzie Campbell, Marguerite Harris, Lorraine Minnes, and Florence Campbell. Mother's Catechism:—Lilla Herald, Sarah Rooke, Connie Lowe, Martha Gray, Laura McArthur, Birdie McDonald, Willie Jones, George Mudie, Lorne Fisher, and Balfour Mudie.

We welcome to our ranks as teachers—Mrs. Parker, Misses Cameron and Mudie, Messrs. Mason, Fisher and Bannister, and to the library department—Messrs. H. Nickle and Cosgerry.
